MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol

August 11, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

Senate Bill 1108 contains numerous changes to the law regarding schools consistent with the Budget that I have approved. Foremost among these provisions that I am approving are $110 million for K–12 school district revenue limit equalization and statutory provisions allocating $80 million in equalization funding for community colleges. Included in this bill, of great importance to school districts is the $270 million in funding to reduce cuts made to revenue limits in the 2003–04 Budget, and a new mechanism to ensure that old Proposition 98 debts will be paid off beginning in 2006–07 at a pace the State can afford—$150 million per year. Also included in this bill is $138 million in one-time funds for instructional materials to schools in deciles 1 and 2 of the Academic Performance Index, and $58.4 million to retire old debts for State mandates on schools.

However, I am eliminating three appropriations in this bill totaling over $11 million that were not part of the agreements I made with legislative leaders on education spending. With these deletions, I am setting aside the funds to focus on the education priorities agreed to with education leaders to provide more flexible funding so local schools can fund their most important needs.

I am deleting a change to law in Section 10 of the bill that adjusts state funding for revenue limits by the savings schools receive from lower Public Employees Retirement System rates. The change in Education Code Section 42238.23 exempts funds provided to regional occupational centers that are joint powers organizations from these reductions that apply to all other educational agencies. This is not equitable and is unwarranted. By deleting this amendment, existing law will be restored, which under the current interpretation of the Department of Education, will reduce the statutory appropriation for school revenue limits equitably to all educational agencies.

I am deleting the $6,000,000 legislative augmentation in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 36 to provide Arts Works grants. While I am supportive of arts programs, this small, competitive grant program serves relatively few schools. These funds, which count towards Proposition 98 2003–04 obligations, will be appropriated to schools at a future date. During this time of fiscal difficulties, these funds should be spent for educational priorities agreed to with education leaders to provide more flexible funding so local schools can fund their most important needs.

I am deleting the $5,000,000 legislative augmentation in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 36 to start a new cohort for the Academic Improvement & Achievement Act. This small, competitive grant program helps only 12 districts out of the over 1,000 school districts in the state. The program has sufficient funding to complete the existing cohorts, and is set to sunset on July 1, 2005. These funds, which count towards the Proposition 98 obligation for 2003–04, will be appropriated at a future date. During this time of fiscal difficulties, these funds should be spent for educational priorities agreed to with education leaders to provide more flexible funding so local schools can fund their most important needs.

I am signing this bill with the following reductions:

I am deleting Section 10.

I am revising Section 36 as follows:

I reduce the total of the appropriations in subdivision (a) of Section 36 of this bill from $926,527,000 to $915,441,000 by deleting subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), which contains an appropriation for $6,000,000, and by deleting subparagraph (D) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), which contains an appropriation for $5,000,000. I am also correcting the total of the appropriation to reflect the sum of the parts.

Cordially,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

Above items ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 12th day of August 2004 at 8:15 a.m., of the Governor's statement of the items of appropriation reduced or eliminated from SB 1108 delivered to me personally by Pamela K. Oto.

The following communication was ordered printed in the Journal:

*The Honorable John Burton
President pro Tempore*

RE: SB 260 (Romero)

Dear Mr. President,

Senate Bill 260 would authorize the California Department of Corrections (CDC) and Health Care Districts to create regional Inmate

Health Service Joint Powers Agencies (JPAs). Inmate Health Service JPAs will enable smaller rural public hospitals, operated by Health Care Districts, to fully compete for “preferred provider” hospital contracts with the California Department of Corrections. If fully utilized, these JPAs could help reduce inmate health care costs by an estimated $20,000,000 annually, while improving access to and quality of inmate health care.

The rural public hospitals operated by Health Care Districts provide quality care at significantly lower “billed charges” rates than do private for profit and non-profit hospitals. Per-patient inmate health care costs at CDC’s existing preferred hospitals are, on average, 50% higher than at the rural District Hospitals now under contract with the Department. Indeed, CDC now pays its preferred hospitals an average of 46% more per-patient than these same hospitals net from all other patients and payors combined—adding more than $23,000,000 to the cost of inmate hospital services each year. Rural District Hospitals could provide this same care at significantly lower cost.

Many of CDC’s preferred hospitals are located a great distance from the prisons, and inmates, they serve. As a result, inmates now being treated in CDC preferred hospitals must be transported hundreds of miles round-trip for care—often bypassing more cost-effective rural District hospitals completely. This transport adds roughly $1,500 to the cost of treatment for each inmate, and results in increased hospital stays for inmates who cannot receive follow-up care from their surgeons and other hospital based physicians.

Under existing law and practice, many rural District Hospitals are simply too small to compete for CDC preferred hospital contracts. However, working as an integrated health care network these same hospitals are more than capable of meeting CDC’s requirements as preferred provider hospitals. SB 260 creates the legal structure, in statute, that will enable and encourage The California Department of Corrections and local Health Care Districts to create these preferred provider networks.

Senate Bill 260 is intended to support and augment existing civil service health care personnel through the provision of medically necessary community based public hospital services to prison inmates. It should not be interpreted as providing the authority to supplant or eliminate existing inmate health care related civil service positions.

Inmate Health Service JPAs would enable rural public hospitals, in conjunction with the California Department of Corrections, to establish preferred networks of public hospitals and other health care providers, establish standardized reimbursement rate and contract structures, and provide health care utilization review, health management consulting and other services.

Finally, SB 260 would serve to stabilize rural public hospital finances, averting the likely bankruptcy and closure of more than a half dozen district hospitals, while offering the state potentially significant general fund savings.

Sincerely,

GLORIA ROMERO

August 16, 2004

*Gregory Schmidt, Secretary of the Senate
California State Senate*

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I have introduced Assembly Bill 1721 to prohibit retailers from charging a price higher than the lowest price that is posted on an item itself or a shelf tag that corresponds to the item. The lowest price would apply regardless of any posted time limitation for the sale price.

AB 1721 amends Section 12024.2 of the Business & Professions Code that was enacted prior to the now common use of computer scanners at check-out stands. This legislation enacts into law a requirement for retailers to charge the lowest price for the product that is displayed and not the higher original or regular price for the item. This requirement is consistent with the stated policy of most retailers in California and helps to prevent retailers who do not comply with this requirement from obtaining a competitive advantage over retailers who are in compliance.

Consumers reasonably expect that the price label and the shelf tag indicating the price of an item accurately reflect the price then charged for the item. Consumers may be easily confused by price labels or shelf price tags that do not state current prices such as a shelf price tag displaying a special "sale" price that is left on the shelf after the sale expiration date. Because of the volume of items in stores, the very large number of price labels and shelf price tags, the very limited size of shelf price tags and price labels that practically restrict the inclusion of meaningful information beyond the stated price itself, the confusing nature of expired or premature sale price tags on currently offered items, and the posting of the sale price tags at many different heights and locations, it is very difficult for consumers to notice or remember any time limitation placed on a posted price. Therefore, a disclosure provision requiring a certain size, typeface, or location specifying the limited duration of the sale would not effectively provide consumers with accurate sales price information or prevent posted expired or future "sale" price tags from being confusing.

Moreover, the posting of individual effective dates for each sale item does not adequately apprise consumers of the then applicable price for the item and only compounds consumers' confusion as to whether the posted price on the shelf or item is the currently effective price.

AB 1721 has been amended to address marketing concerns raised by some retailers so that the limitations on the expiration dates for sale items is narrowly drawn to address the problems that have been noted in the marketplace.

Finally, AB 1721 and the advertising prohibition contained therein are prospective in nature and are not intended in any way to affect advertising practices that occurred prior to the bill's effective date.

Sincerely,

PAUL KORETZ
Assemblyman, 42nd

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

Senator Ashburn led the Senate in the pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol
August 16, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am signing Senate Bill 1107 with the following reductions:

The Sierra Nevada's are a valuable natural asset for all Californians. There is a bipartisan proposal pending in the Legislature to create a Sierra Nevada Conservancy that balances statewide values and local interests. I am deleting $5 million of the $9.15 million appropriation for the Sierra Nevada Cascade and sustaining $4.15 million to assure that there are adequate resources to make the Sierra Nevada Conservancy a success when it is created. The remaining funding level more accurately reflects the actual amount that the Secretary will be able to expend in the 2004–05 fiscal year until the conservancy is fully implemented.

Additionally, I am deleting $28.35 million of the $38.35 million appropriations for the purpose of awarding grants related to River Parkways conservation programs. These reductions better reflect the actual amount that the Secretary will be able to expend in the 2004–05 fiscal year because the bill requires new program activities which will take time to implement.

Cordially,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

Above item ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 17th day of August 2004 at 9 a.m., of the Governor's statement of the items of appropriation reduced or eliminated from SB 1107 delivered to me personally by Nanette Madsen.

DAVID H. KNEALE
Assistant Secretary of the Senate

August 19, 2004

*Senator John Burton
President pro Tempore*

Dear President Burton:

I respectfully request permission to clarify the intent of SB 1618 related to employee compensation.

I introduced SB 1618 to change Section 226 of the Labor Code and give employees greater protection from identity theft. The bill restricts the use of an employee's social security number for identification purposes on wage statements.

It is my hope that SB 1809 (Dunn) and the bill's January 1, 2008 implementation date will not put an onerous burden on businesses and will provide an adequate notification period to comply with the above changes to Section 226 of the Labor Code.

Sincerely,

JIM BATTIN
Senator, 37th District

RE: SB 730 (Burton)

Assembly Member Corbett:

I am writing to request that your committee cancel today's hearing on Senate Bill 730, which would have restored the presumptive right of custodial parents to relocate absent a showing of prejudice to the rights of the child. Thank you for agreeing to hold a hearing on this important issue during the Fall recess.

Since 1872, California has recognized the right of a custodial parent to relocate with a child, subject to a court's authority to prevent a change in residence that would be detrimental to the child's best interest. In 1996, the California Supreme Court decided In re Marriage of Burgess which acknowledged this statutory right as necessary to the realities of a mobile society, and of the particular need of divorced parents to improve their economic circumstances, reconnect with family support systems, and establish new marriages after divorce. The Burgess Court set a standard for reviewing so-called "move-away" cases which provides that a noncustodial parent objecting to relocation would have to prove that the move is intended merely to frustrate visitation rights, or that it will result in such a significant detriment to the child that a change in custody is warranted. Notwithstanding the Legislature's endorsement of this standard just last year with the enactment of SB 156 (Burton), the Court's recent decision in In re Marriage of LaMusga altered the standard by which a successful objection to a custodial parent's relocation can be made.

I believe legislation such as SB 730 should move forward to set clear standards for when a relocation would be prohibited which focus on the welfare of the children and preserving the continuity and permanency of custodial placement with the primary caretaker. However, I am supportive of taking the time to study the issue further and gather public input during the Fall recess before taking further legislative action.

Thank you and I look forward to working with you on the hearing.

Peace and friendship,

JOHN L. BURTON

Secretary of the Senate

Dear Mr. Schmidt:

As the author of SB 1451, my intentions are stated in Section 1 of the bill. I wish to make clear that it is not my intent, in passing SB 1451, that it be interpreted in any way to restrict a state agency's use of information in administrative proceedings.

Sincerely,

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Deacon Walter J. Little:

As we approach the end of this legislative session let us pause to remember those who no longer walk with us on this journey of life: former colleagues, staff members, family, friends, constituents. May we remember not to be possessive of their gifts, for it is in the passing on of their love that their immortality is assured and our own sorrows become lighter. Let us also pray for those who suffer and are ill. May the healing touch of their creator's hand ease their pain and restore them to health. Lord God, into Your hands we commend this day and those we love and serve. We ask for Your blessing and give thanks for Your steadfast love.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol
August 24, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

Senate Bill 1324 would weaken the landscaped freeway provisions in the California Outdoor Advertising Act by establishing a spot exemption for the placement of three advertising displays on property owned by the Lennox School District adjacent to landscaped freeways. While I am sensitive to the financial needs of the school district, I am concerned that creation of spot exemptions like this creates an unfair and uneven playing field both for businesses and property owners. In addition, the billboards would be erected without the support or approval of the city government or the school's neighbors.

I am further concerned that this bill, by extending the precedent of creating spot exemptions to the landscaped freeway provisions, would weaken the effectiveness of those provisions. California has invested substantial resources in landscaping certain freeway segments and the purpose of the law is to preserve that investment.

Based on the aforementioned reasons, I cannot in good faith sign SB 1324.

Cordially,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 24th day of August 2004 at 9:23 a.m., of SB 1324 without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objection thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Nanette Madsen.

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Senator Cedillo moved that the following letter be printed in the Journal:

Motion carried.

August 24, 2004

The Honorable John Burton

President pro Tempore

Re: SB 593 (Ackerman)

Dear Senator Burton:

This is to indicate our understanding and recollection of the Revenue and Taxation Committee's hearing on SB 593 (Ackerman) on June 25, 2003. The bill was intended to require that the personal property of airlines (primarily aircraft) be assessed by the Board of Equalization.

County assessors opposed this plan, and suggested, alternatively, that county assessors develop a centralized assessment and appeal procedure under which (quoting from the committee analysis) "each airline would be assigned to a single county assessor—the "lead" assessor for that airline. The lead assessor would value all aircraft operated by that airline, and share the assessment information with all counties into which that airline flies. The lead assessor's county would also be responsible for hearing appeals made by that airline. And audits of airline property would be conducted by a single team of auditors, rather than separate audits conducted by each county."

However, committee staff were orally informed by Legislative Counsel that this approach would probably be found to be unconstitutional, as the Constitution requires that all property be assessed by the county assessor of the county within which the property is located. Subsequently, Senator Ackerman requested and received a written opinion from Legislative Counsel to the same effect.

At the hearing on the bill (June 25, 2003) the committee considered and discussed potential amendments that would have accomplished the centralized assessment approach proposed by the counties, and chose not to amend the bill in that manner. Nonetheless, we are informed that the assessors have decided to unilaterally implement their plan. After consulting with Legislative Counsel, we believe this is permitted neither by statute nor the Constitution. Furthermore, it is inconsistent with the actions of the Revenue and Taxation Committee.

Sincerely,
GILBERT CEDILLO
Chair, Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee

DICK ACKERMAN
Senate Republican Leader

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol

August 24, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1299 without my signature.

While I am generally supportive of allowing school districts the flexibility to address their students' needs at the local level, I would prefer dealing with categorical program flexibility in a more comprehensive manner.

The Administration's 2004–05 categorical reform proposal would have provided greater flexibility by shifting program funding, along with funding for 21 other categorical programs, into school revenue limits. This would allow local school governing boards to implement counseling programs in any grade they deem appropriate to allow pupils to plan for their postsecondary education options. Instead, this bill deals with one particular categorical program by authorizing a unified school district, or a high school district, to implement the Student Academic Review and Counseling Program in grade 8 or 9, rather than in grade 10.

In order to make real change in our public schools the state cannot simply address categorical flexibility in a piecemeal approach as contemplated by this bill.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this measure.

Cordially,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Receipt of Bills

I acknowledge receipt this 24th day of August 2004 at 7:14 p.m., of SB 1299 without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objection thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Nanette Madsen.

It is written that: "For every thing there is a season and a purpose. A time for war and a time for peace. A time to fight and a time for healing." We come before You this morning, Lord, battered and hurt from our trek through the political battlefield that necessarily pit friend against friend, colleague against colleague and we seek the soothing touch of Your always forgiving and healing love. Call us back from the "what might have beens" by re-uniting and re-directing us toward the "what can be?" that we might stand again anointed as one voice for those most in need of help. Bless us, O Lord, and let us walk in Your radiance for many days to come.—AMEN

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Senator Johnson moved that the following letter be printed in the Journal.

Motion carried.

August 23, 2004

To the Members of the Senate:

We are submitting this letter to clarify our intent in supporting Senate Bill 58.

SB 58 deals with confidential personal information about victims and witnesses named in police reports that are filed as attachments to criminal court complaints. These police reports may contain personal identifying information about victims and witnesses such as home addresses, date of birth, social security numbers, driver's license numbers or other personal details. Public access to such information may put victims and witnesses at risk of identity theft or other crimes.

SB 58 requires the courts and district attorneys of each county to establish a procedure to keep this personal information confidential. The purpose of this letter is to make it abundantly clear that this procedure must, of course, be implemented in a manner that is consistent with the state and federal constitutions.

We believe very strongly in public access to court proceedings and court records, and have worked to craft SB 58 so that it will not unduly interfere with public access. The bill will merely safeguard the privacy of victims and witnesses by preventing the release of specified confidential personal details that they have provided to the authorities in good faith.

Respectfully,

ROSS JOHNSON
Senator, 35th District

JOHN BURTON
President Pro Tempore

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Deacon Walter J. Little:

In the animal kingdom, of which we are a part, it is a fact that if human beings, the top of the food chain, were removed, the world would not only survive it would flourish. However, if the gnats or the mosquitoes are removed, the entire food chain collapses and everything dies. Lord, help us always to be mindful of the little people in the world, the bottom of the food chain, as it were, for if we continue to take from them to the benefit of those at the top of the food chain eventually everything will collapse and die. Help us always to care deeply for those whose needs are greatest so that everyone and everything else will benefit and flourish.—AMEN.

August 26, 2004

The Honorable John Burton

President pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton:

As the author of SB 1173, I am writing this letter to provide clarification to one of the provisions in the bill and to express the intent behind that provision.

Section 22962 (c) indicates that the ban on self-service displays shall not apply to the display of these products in tobacco stores, “provided that in the case of cigars they are generally not sold or offered for sale in a sealed package of the manufacturer or importer containing less than six cigars.”

The intent of this provision was to focus specifically on those five packs of cigars and remove them from any temptation which adolescents and youth may have to shoplift such product. However, as written, there is likelihood for confusion regarding the term “sealed package”. This provision is not intended to apply to single cigars sold in tobacco stores from the manufacturer’s original box, bundle, or other container and enclosed in cellophane, aluminum, plastic, or glass in order to keep the cigar fresh and prevent it from drying out or being otherwise damaged.

Furthermore, there will not be a youth shoplifting issue in “tobacco stores” because such stores as defined in SB 1173 will be required to deny entry to any person under 18 years of age unless accompanied by the person’s parent or legal guardian. Therefore, as it applies to such tobacco stores only, with the exception of the above clarification regarding single cigar sales, the term “sealed package” is intended to apply to boxes, bundles, multiple-pack containers used for display purposes, tins or other types of containers.

Sincerely,

DEBORAH V. ORTIZ
Senator, 6th District

Senator John Burton

President pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton:

Senate Bill 1307 requires the establishment of an electronic pedigree system for prescription drugs as early as January 1, 2007.

It is the intent of Senate Bill 1307 that the electronic record requirement be met by a nationwide pedigree system employing radio frequency identification technology (RFID) tags. Such a system is currently in development and is expected to be available to meet the deadlines established in Senate Bill 1307. The bill does not specify RFID tags so that future technological innovations can be implemented without a change in statute.

Sincerely,

LIZ FIGUEROA

Dear Senator Burton:

SB 1744 enacts a number of changes affecting time extensions and appeals pertaining to bail bonds. These changes promote public safety and provide beneficial procedures to both bail agents and sureties. SB 1744 will take effect on January 1, 2005. Because the changes are procedural, they would apply to bail bonds written prior to January 1, 2005. However, it is the author's intent that SB 1744 apply only to bonds written following the date of the legislation's enrollment by the Secretary of State. The purpose of this letter is to provide notice to those presently executing bail bonds that SB 1744 will apply to those instruments.

Very truly yours,

August 26, 2004

Honorable John Burton
President Pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton,

I authored Senate Bill 142 in order to expand the state's newborn screening program to screen for additional disorders, and to improve the billing practices and collections of the prenatal and newborn genetic screening programs within the Department of Health Services. Earlier versions of SB 142 contained these provisions. I am pleased that these provisions were incorporated instead into SB 1103, the omnibus health budget trailer bill, which was recently signed by the Governor.

It has come to my attention, however, that the language authorizing the department to charge fees to support the program in Section 124977 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by SB 1103, does not preclude the department from double-billing payers for the same services. I have been assured by the department that this has not been their practice, nor will it be. While I believe that the working group recommendations, as well as the department's regulations can further clarify this point, I submit this Letter to the Journal to make clear that it is not my intent to permit the department to double-bill payers for the same genetic testing services.

Sincerely,

SENATOR DEDE ALPERT
39th District

MOTION TO PRINT IN JOURNAL

Motion carried.

August 26, 2004

The Honorable John Burton

Senate President pro tempore

Dear Mr. President:

Senate Bill 1459 is intended to bring under state control all of the non-federal trawl fisheries occurring offshore California, establish standards for those fisheries to meet to protect ocean habitats and protect against excessive bycatch, and provide the Fish and Game Commission management authority over those fisheries.

Within SB 1459 are provisions for the size of nets to be used in the halibut trawl grounds in state waters in the Santa Barbara Channel area. The specifications for these nets, including the mesh sizes, were recommended by the fishing industry with the intent of preventing newer and larger nets being used in this area, not to force the fishermen currently operating in this area to have to build expensive replacement nets. There is concern, in particular, that because of the way net meshes are measured by the Department of Fish and Game, a different and slightly smaller mesh size may be needed; for example from 5 inches to 4½ inches.

By providing the Fish and Game Commission authority over this fishery, SB 1459 is intended to allow the commission to act immediately after the effective date of the measure to modify as may be necessary the net measurements, among other things, to avoid unnecessary hardship to the industry while still meeting the conservation standards set forth in SB 1459.

Sincerely,

SENATOR DEDE ALPERT
39th District

COMMUNICATIONS AND LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL

The following communications were ordered printed in the Journal:

August 27, 2004

*Hon. John Burton, President pro Tempore
California State Senate*

President pro Tempore Burton and Members of the Senate:

I am writing this letter to provide clarification to one of the provisions in SB 1102 (Committee on Budget) and to express the intent behind that provision.

The purpose of Section 71639.5 is to ensure that written agreements that were negotiated prior to the enactment Chapter 227, Statutes of 2004 are binding. This includes any alternative to the procedure outlined in former Section 71639.1(c) that was negotiated pursuant to former Section 71639.1(f) as added by Chapter 1010, Statutes of 2000. Such alternatives are intended to remain in effect and, if the alternative procedures require arbitration of controversies, be subject to enforcement under Title 9 of Part 3 of the California Code of Civil Procedure. Provided, however, that a complaint alleging any violation under Article 3 of Chapter 7 of Title 8 of the California Government Code or of any rules and regulations adopted by a trial court pursuant to Section 71636 of the California Government Code shall be processed as an unfair practice charge by the Public Employment Relations Board.

Sincerely,

WESLEY CHESBRO, Chair
Senate Committee on Budget and Fiscal Review

August 27, 2004

*The Honorable John Burton
President pro Tempore of the Senate*

Dear Senator Burton:

This is to clarify the intent of SEC. 5 of Senate Bill 1596 which adds Section 3692.4 to the Revenue and Taxation Code. Specifically, subdivision (c) of Section 3692.4 requires a county upon receipt of a valid request to bring a tax-delinquent property to auction at the “next scheduled public auction.”

It has come to my attention that the request mechanism specified in subdivision (c) does not take into account the interaction between this new obligation and the legal notice requirements and administrative processing requirements that exist pursuant to current law. This problem may be further complicated by the fact that some California counties have one tax-delinquent property auction per year while other counties have more than one.

Senate Bill 1596 was not drafted with the intent to alter or abridge current law notice requirements and the consequent processing time associated with the notice requirements that govern the sale of tax-delinquent property. Rather, the intent of subdivision (c) of Section 3692.4 as added by Senate Bill 1596 is that the requested sale of tax-delinquent property shall occur at the next public auction consistent with current-law notification and processing requirements.

Sincerely,

DENISE MORENO DUCHENY, Senator
40th Senate District

August 26, 2004

The Honorable John Burton
President pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton:

I write to clarify my legislative intent with respect to SB 1280, which authorizes State participation in an Army Corps of Engineer's project for flood damage reduction and environmental restoration in the American River watershed in Sacramento County.

The project includes measures to raise Folsom Dam, construct a new bridge across the American River below the dam, improve the dam's water temperature control structures, and enhance vegetation and wildlife habitat values in the American River Parkway.

SB 1280 states that the project is adopted "substantially in accordance with congressional approval and the final report of the Chief of Engineers dated November 5, 2002" as set forth in Section 128 of the Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act, 2004 (P.L. 108-137).

In the drafting of the bill these words were carefully chosen because the bridge component approved by Congress is broader than the bridge component described in the Chief's Report. Whereas the Chief's Report calls for a temporary bridge, the legislation approved by Congress directs the Army Corps of Engineers to construct a permanent bridge instead of a temporary bridge if supplemental funding is provided. The legislation then authorizes additional funding for construction of the permanent bridge.

Given this context, my legislative intent was twofold: to ensure active State participation in planning, designing, and constructing the permanent bridge, and to link the State's statutorily mandated financial contribution for the cost of the temporary bridge to the permanent bridge.

Sincerely,

DEBORAH V. ORTIZ

The Honorable John Burton
Senate President Pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton:

I carried SB 1820 this session to help protect the integrity of the California Land Conservation (Williamson) Act. SB 1820 ensures that cancellation penalty fees paid are neither more nor less than they should be under the law.

The final amendments (August 23, 2004) to the bill were intended to resolve concerns over the appropriate method of reviewing an initial cancellation fee valuation. Unfortunately, drafting of this language left issues unresolved.

It is my hope that clarifying legislation be introduced next year on an urgency basis to ensure that this bill will work in the manner consistent with our intent, and to minimize confusion in the bill's application. Future legislation should address the following issues:

1) The assessor's formal review was intended to be mandatory rather than permissive (p. 6, line 30). Earlier versions of the bill described the formal review as permissive because it would have otherwise been an unfunded mandate. However, the 8/23 amendments authorized the assessor to recover the costs of formal review out of contract cancellation fees, eliminating that issue. The revisions made in the rest of the bill depend upon the assessor's implementation and completion of that process. Subsequent amendments should substitute "shall" for "may" on p. 6, line 30.

2) The language amending Section 51283.4 (a) (p10, lines 13–22) was intended to permit a landowner to trigger the process of recalculating the cancellation fee when he or she believed that any conditions or contingencies required by a board or counsel could be completed within the following 6 months. However, it was not intended that this voluntary notice would be the only circumstance that triggered a recalculation of the fee. Thus the language on line 13 "of notice described in subdivision (b)" should not have been deleted. And should be followed by "or the date" the land owner requests a recomputation.

3) The language in Section 51283.5 (c) was intended to authorize the landowner to pay the cancellation fee in the amount of the assessor's initial calculation, and securitize an additional amount of 20%, even when a formal review had been requested. At this date, it appears that two different versions of Section 51283.5 (c) are in circulation, depending on the source of the language. This section should read as follows and, if the bill is enrolled without further amendment, it is possible that future legislation will be needed to meet our intent.

"51283.5 (c) If the landowner wishes to pay a cancellation fee when a formal review has been requested, he or she may pay the fee required in the current certificate of cancellation and provide security determined to be adequate by the Department of Conservation for 20 percent of the cancellation fee based on the assessor's valuation. The board or council shall hold the security and release it immediately upon full payment of the cancellation fee determined pursuant to Section 51203.”

4) The new appeal process should apply only to petitions that are accepted as complete after the bill’s January 1, 2005, effective date for cancellations. While it is accepted that non-urgency bills do not take effect until January 1 of the year following passage, the cancellation process is lengthy. It is my intent that only petitions for cancellation that are accepted as complete pursuant to Section 51284.1 on or after January 1, 2005, would be subject to the bill.

5) There are several omitted cross-references or typos. These include:

(a) Adding “or Section 51283.4” after “51283.” (Section 51203 (d) on p. 7, line 28). (b) Adding “and Section 51203 (b).” after “subdivision (d)” (Section 51283, p. 9, line 26). (c) Changing “or” to “of” after “approval” (Section 51283.5, p. 11, line 18).

Sincerely,

MICHAEL J. MACHADO
Senator, Fifth District

Dear John:

SB 519 provides drug treatment eligibility to wards of the juvenile court on parole who commit a nonviolent drug possession offense or violate any drug-related condition on parole, instead of returning them to a California Youth Authority (CYA) institution. This measure adopts the spirit of Proposition 36, which provides treatment instead of incarceration.

There is an inadvertent drafting error in this measure. It will be corrected in the Senate Public Safety Committees’ omnibus bill in next year’s legislative session.

The bill contains language that excludes most parolees who have been convicted of a serious or violent felony. The term convicted does not apply to CYA wards. This same language will be redrafted to reflect the terms applicable to wards of the California Youth Authority. Instead of referring to wards who have been convicted of serious or violent felonies, the bill will be changed to refer to wards that have been found to have committed serious or violent felonies.

I thank you, and I wish you well.

Dear President Burton:

I respectfully request permission to clarify the intent of Sec. 4, subdivision (b) contained in Senate Bill 635. This is in response to an issue raised in the Senate Public Safety Committee when the bill returned to the Senate for concurrence.

The bill requires the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County to report to the Legislature whether, and to what extent that, actions are taken by the county to implement alternative local sources of funding for emergency medical services.

It is the intent of the author of SB 635, Senator Joseph Dunn, that the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara County place a measure on the Santa Barbara County ballot as soon as possible, but no later than November 2006, that will raise funds for emergency medical services.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH L. DUNN
Senator, 34th District

Secretary of the Senate

Dear Greg,

This letter is to clarify the intent of my SB 1520.

SB 1520 will ban, beginning July 1, 2012, the force feeding of birds for the purpose of enlarging their livers.

In addition, SB 1520 will provide limited term immunity to any business that currently employs force feeding in the production of its agricultural products. The immunity provision of SB 1520 only applies to acts of force feeding and is intended to prohibit any pending or future criminal or civil cause of action, including an action under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17200) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code, from being brought. The immunity does not cover acts prohibited by SB 1520 that occur after July 1, 2012.

Peace and friendship,

JOHN L. BURTON
Senate President pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton:

SB 1544 extends the sunset date of the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Reform Act of 1989 (Act) and the Bureau for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, and provides for the appointment of a monitor of the Bureau.

Amendments proposed by the Assembly Business and Professions Committee which were included in the bill on August 17, 2004, also exempts programs costing $500 or less from the Act, strike "short-term seminar training,” and establishes a new category called the short-term education program.

I have been informed by the Assembly Business and Professions Committee that there may still be concerns regarding this provision in the bill. It is my intent to deal with this issue next year and to resolve any concerns regarding what programs, if any, should be exempt from the Act.

Sincerely,

LIZ FIGUEROA
State Senator, 10th District

August 27, 2004

Dear Mr. President and colleagues:

I wish to clarify my intent with regard to my Senate Bill 1215, relating to the Public Resources Account and Environmental License Plate Fund appropriations.

If enacted, SB 1215 is intended to only affect the Department of Fish and Game and the Department of Parks and Recreation. SB 1215 was introduced to ensure that the Department of Fish and Game receive adequate Public Resources Account funding for its waterfowl programs. SB 1215 is not intended to transfer funding to or from any other state board or department other than the two mentioned above.

Sincerely,

BILL MORROW

Dear John:

This letter concerns SB 1399 now passed by both houses of the Legislature and on its way to the Governor for his signature.

The passage in the August 17th version on page 6, lines 27–31 inclusive, and page 7, lines 22–26 inclusive which enables a California prison inmate to file a writ of mandate if the prescribed services were not provided, was included to limit an inmate’s remedy, and assure we did not allow for damages and lawyer fees and create a boon to lawyers.

At the request of the California District Attorney’s Association, I agreed to entirely delete those two passages. Alas, the deadline for amendments had passed.

To correct this situation, I have gotten the commitment of Assemblyman Mark Leno, Chair of the Assembly Committee on Public Safety, to carry legislation in 2005, if the Governor signs my SB 1399 into law, to delete those two provisions from this law.

I thank you and I wish you well,

JOHN VASCONCELLOS

August 27, 2004

To President pro Tem John Burton:

It has come to my attention that amendments taken to my bill SB 1478 on August 26, 2004 create some confusion as to the intent of the new Public Utilities Code Section 635. It is our intent that the reference to the loading order in the section is a loading order approved by the California Public Utilities Commission or in the case of a local publicly owned electric utility, a functionally equivalent loading order approved by the local publicly owned electric utility's governing body.

It is not the intent of this language that a local publicly owned electric utility must comply with any loading order approved by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, or the California Consumer Power and Conservation Financing Authority.

Sincerely,

BYRON SHER

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol
August 27, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 673 without my signature.

In 2002 the local sales tax extension was put before the voters and failed to achieve the necessary votes. At that time voters had all of the information to make an informed decision.

Unfortunately, this bill removes crucial information required to be placed in the ballot measure to inform voters when deciding on increasing the sales tax for transportation improvements. No longer would voters be informed of the nature of the tax, the rate, or the length of time that each voter would be paying the tax. This information is extremely important for voters when deciding whether this tax increase is appropriate.

Transportation is essential to California's economic growth. I have instructed my Office of Planning and Research to work with the proponents of this bill to find a suitable solution to properly informing the voters of the project information while still providing them all the necessary information on the tax extension.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
August 27, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1151 without my signature.

This bill will seriously compromise public safety by prohibiting some of the most serious juvenile offenders from being treated as adults in the criminal justice system. This measure will weaken provisions of juvenile justice reform as passed by the voters by a wide margin of support in March 2000. Proposition 21, entitled the Gang Violence and Juvenile Crime Prevent Act, was passed by voters to toughen the law against dangerous juvenile criminals and to hold them fully accountable for their actions.

Current law permits serious juvenile offenders to be tried in the adult criminal court if certain conditions are met. SB 1151 will make it difficult to send juveniles with serious crimes to be tried in adult court as contemplated by the voters. Case law on this issue is clear and provides the necessary judicial discretion to ensure appropriate juvenile offenders are directed out of the adult system. This bill will have the effect weakening the law as it relates to criminal liability for murderers and rapists, and accomplices to serious crimes such as carjacking, and subject those convicted to early release.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
August 27, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1336 without my signature.

This bill authorizes the California Dental Board to issue permits to oral surgeons allowing them to perform certain types of elective cosmetic surgery. I believe this practice needs to be more carefully reviewed and evaluated to fully ensure the safety of California's consumers.

Therefore, I am directing the Department of Consumer Affairs to conduct an occupational analysis of the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon (OMS) profession. This analysis will allow the Department of Consumer Affairs to examine the existing training and education requirements and make an assessment as to whether the additional permit standards proposed in the bill would enable the OMS to practice safely and competently in the expanded situations allowed for by the bill.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
August 27, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1418 without my signature.

I wholeheartedly support setting the highest expectations of achievement for students, by encouraging everyone involved in our K–12 schools to work together in making California's education system the envy of the world. I believe the state should have high goals for education and should always be striving to develop better ways of delivering a quality education for all students. While it may be appropriate for California to adopt educational goals and principles, great care should be taken that the goals and principles are achievable both fiscally and programmatically.

This measure creates expectations that the state will deliver an educational system without providing specific programmatic changes needed to achieve the general goals and principles in the bill. While I agree with much of the intent expressed, I firmly believe government should deliver what it promises. To that end, I am more than willing to work collaboratively with members of the education community and the Legislature to revise specific educational programs to be more effective and find new ways to serve all students. However, while well meaning in its intent, I am concerned that this bill could create grounds for litigation against the state in the future for failing to meet its ambiguous goals.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

LETTERS OF INTENT

The following letters were ordered printed in the Journal:

August 27, 2004

Hon. Gregory Schmidt
Secretary of the Senate

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I introduced Senate Bill 1201 in order to enable the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District (BART) to take delivery of power from local publicly owned electric utilities on the same terms and conditions as BART currently takes delivery of power from federal power marketing agencies. This will give BART an alternative source of low-priced power to the extent that federal preference power cannot serve BART's electricity requirements as it now does. BART has served its electricity requirements with federal preference power before deregulation was implemented in California and long before the energy crisis of 2000–2001 began through today.

As author, it is my intent that, since BART used federal preference power delivered under Section 701.8 of the Public Utilities Code to satisfy its electricity requirements throughout the energy crisis of 2000–2001, none of BART's power delivered pursuant to Section 701.8, as amended by SB 1201, would be subject to any charges or costs that arise from the energy crisis. These include, without limitation, charges or costs related to the purchase of power by the California Department of Water Resources (DWR) on behalf of credit-challenged electrical corporations and charges or costs related to the emergence of Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) from bankruptcy. Furthermore, because BART was purchasing its power requirements from federal power marketing agencies throughout the energy crisis, DWR did not purchase power to serve BART, and PG&E's credit difficulties were not attributable to BART in any manner.

Any power acquired by BART from a local publicly owned utility pursuant to Section 701.8, as amended by SB 1201, would not be replacing power supplied by PG&E. Therefore, any charges or costs traceable to the energy crisis of 2000–2001 that would otherwise apply to the supply of municipal power to customers departing PG&E service or to other new municipal accounts would have no application to the power delivered to BART pursuant to this bill.

Sincerely,

TOM TORLAKSON

September 2, 2004

The Honorable John Burton
President pro Tempore

Dear Senator Burton:

As the author of SB 1785, I am writing this letter to clarify that my measure to streamline the articulation of community college students to the California State University (CSU) through the establishment of a systemwide lower-division transfer curriculum is not designed or intended to create state-mandated costs on local community college districts.

This bill directs the Chancellor of the CSU and the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, in consultation with the Community College Academic Senate, to articulate courses that meet the transfer curriculum created pursuant to the bill. Though I agree that community college personnel will have to be aware of, and involved in, the processes outlined in my bill in order to effectively promote student transfer on their respective campuses, I note that community colleges already engage in articulation activities as part of their core mission.

Course articulation is a basic element—and current responsibility—of both the CSU and the community colleges. This bill simply seeks to provide greater specificity with regard to how those activities are carried out at CSU and the community colleges. Therefore, any additional costs resulting from this bill would be minor in nature, and easily absorbable within existing articulation efforts and resources.

I submit this Letter to the Journal to make clear that it is not my intent that this bill be construed as a reimbursable State mandate for the California Community Colleges.

Sincerely,

SENATOR JACK SCOTT
21 District

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 14, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1419 without my signature.

While measuring the opportunity for K–12 pupil learning in ways that permit statewide comparison of school programs is important, California has already established a solid comprehensive assessment and accountability program.

The state's current Academic Performance Index (API) provides high quality public data on schools' academic performance. The accountability system provides a "similar schools rank", which compares a school to 100 other schools with similar school ranking. This allows parents and other stakeholders to see how a school compares with other schools that have the same challenges. Additionally, this bill is redundant to the School Accountability Report Card (SARC) as most of the indicators contained in this bill are also contained in the SARC.

For these reasons, I am unable to support this bill.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 471 without my signature.

This bill places state education policy to be in conflict with the No Child Left Behind Act and thus jeopardizes $3.1 billion in federal funds for California schools. It authorizes the Superintendent of Public Instruction to unilaterally determine if the federal government "fully" funds the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB) and declare that the State and its school districts shall not comply with any portions of NCLB that are found to be under funded.

As a donor state, California annually receives far less money than it sends to the federal government. I am unwilling to actively place the federal government in a position to withhold over $3 billion in federal education resources from California schools, especially at a time when we should be providing parents, students, and teachers with the encouragement that all of our state leaders are working together to make our education system the best that it can be.

Finally, not only does this bill undermine the intent of the NCLB Act to ensure that all students are held to the same standards, it also undermines California's existing assessment and accountability system.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 568 without my signature.

I support having clear conflict of interest standards for independent scientists who judge whether the California Environmental Protection Agency's (CalEPA) regulations are based on sound science. However, this bill contains a critical flaw by making university and independent scientists subject to the conflict of interest rules developed for state employees and elected officials. Scientists in academia face different kinds of potential conflicts than policymakers and public officials, and should therefore be governed by standards that reflect their particular profession.

The bill would prohibit a person from performing a statutorily mandated peer review of a CalEPA scientific document if they meet certain criteria for conflicts of interest. By using general definitions that apply to policymakers, this bill would prohibit many of the most qualified scientists from performing peer reviews, while not adequately screening out other scientists who may have actual conflicts of interest.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 645 without my signature.

This bill requires the Integrated Waste Management Board (IWMB) to post on its internet website a list of suppliers, manufacturers, or wholesalers who have failed to comply with the requirements of the Plastic Trash Bags Act.

While I strongly support efforts to increase the public's access to information and holding violators of solid waste laws accountable for their actions, this bill is redundant and unnecessary. The IWMB already makes this information available on its internet website.

For these reasons, I cannot support this measure.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 646 without my signature.

This measure creates an additional reporting requirement on local government and directs grant funds outside the normal competitive process to Keep California Beautiful, an existing non profit organization that is organized for litter reduction education.

The guaranteed set-aside for Keep California Beautiful is a precedent that should not be continued. This bill creates a $300,000 statutory directed grant from the Beverage Container Recycling Fund to a specific entity. Other recipients of set-aside funds under the Recycling Program either administer the program or directly participate in the recycling of beverage containers. Keep California Beautiful, while helping promote the Recycling Program, does not actually perform the manufacturing, sale, or recycling of the products included in the Program.

Continuation of this funding circumvents prior agreements and will result in redundant funding for this organization. The competitive grant program under the Recycling Program was increased from $500,000 to $1.5 million to compel similar applicants to compete for state grant support.

For the reasons listed above I am unable to support this measure.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 924 without my signature.

By forming the Global Gateways Development Council (Council) in state government, this bill could increase staff workload. Additionally, it is not clear that the formation of this Council would generate significant revenue to serve a useful purpose to the public and private organizations it would impact.

When I signed the Executive Order in February of 2004 creating the California Performance Review (CPR), its mission was to make fundamental changes in state government, establish new procedures to create greater efficiencies, prioritize government functions, create true accountability over the fiscal management of state resources. CPR reviews government functions at all levels when there is interaction with state government.

While it is important to address not only goods movement and impact to the transportation system, the provisions found in this bill can be accomplished administratively and without legislation.

For these reasons I am returning SB 924 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 978 without my signature.

This bill requires the Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) to classify the John Marsh Home and the surrounding property as a unit of the state park system. Mandating this action would have immediate one time and ongoing costs to the General Fund.

California's state park system is a true crown jewel. All Californians benefit from this comprehensive network of parks reaching from the coastline to the desert, the Sierras to the sea. However, we must prioritize how we use our fiscal resources to protect and enhance our environmental and cultural assets.

The Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) is already in the process of formally reviewing the classification of the John Marsh Home and its eligibility as a possible addition to the state park system, therefore this bill is unnecessary and redundant. DPR's current evaluation of this property already confirms that the John Marsh Home has sufficient historical significance to warrant its consideration as a new unit of the State Parks system. Requiring DPR to do something it is already doing is unnecessary and could result in significant expenses if implemented as written. Continuing the ongoing administrative process already initiated by DPR will provide the necessary flexibility to address the conversion costs responsibly.

For these reasons I am unable to sign this measure.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1137 without my signature.

This bill provides that the retired member, who is now appointed by the Governor to the State Teachers' Retirement System (STRS) Board, instead be elected by retired members.

In 2002, the Legislature passed SB 1580 (Burton) which altered the composition of the board by providing that three members be elected by members of STRS. Additional changes at this time would not be in the best interest of promoting stable leadership of the STRS Board who administer programs and provide investment oversight for its members.

This bill diminishes the State's presence on the STRS board at time when the STRS fund is experiencing unfunded liabilities and the General Fund is required to contribute over $1 billion to the fund annually. This bill weakens the Administrations' ability to ensure the continued viability of the STRS fund. Reducing the Administration's presence on the Board to less than half the membership would be fiscally imprudent due to the current funding arrangement for the system.

Unlike most defined benefit retirement systems, STRS has enjoyed funding from the State General Fund to offset marginal fluctuations in the need for contributions to ensure that the System is actuarially sound. Until funding for STRS is revised to eliminate reliance on State General Fund contributions, it is important that the Administration maintain a strong presence on the STRS board.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1309 without my signature.

This bill will result in significant state General Fund (Proposition 98) costs, allowing adult education to grow without regard for program needs or the state's funding priorities. The state cannot afford to implement such an "autopilot" growth policy. The Legislature and Administration should have the flexibility to address this issue through the annual budget process. Current law already gives the Superintendent of Public Instruction (SPI) authority to allocate unused funding to districts that can demonstrate need, but tempers this authority by requiring that the SPI develop criteria identifying the need for expansion on an annual basis.

Furthermore, I am concerned that this bill would circumvent the implementation of adult education audit findings from 1993 that have yet to be applied. Until there is an acceptable resolution on these audit findings, I cannot support legislation that may result in these audit findings being disregarded.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1381 without my signature.

This bill would require the Department of Transportation (Department) to implement various recommendations of its 2001 California Blueprint for Bicycling and Walking, including use of a new or existing task force or working group to make recommendations on state and local policy that would enhance walking and bicycling in California. The bill would also require the Department to establish, maintain, and periodically update, a policy to ensure full consideration of the needs of non-motorized travelers in all activities of the Department, and would require that it include in an existing annual report, updates on its progress in implementing this policy.

When I signed the Executive Order in February of 2004 creating the California Performance Review (CPR), its mission was to make fundamental changes in state government, establish new procedures to create greater efficiencies, prioritize government functions, create true accountability over the fiscal management of state resources. CPR reviews government functions at all levels when there is interaction with state government.

While I support efforts to promote increased walking and bicycling, both of which are important for improving physical fitness, I believe that this measure would impose unnecessary legislative requirements. However, although vetoing this measure I am instructing the Director of Transportation to ensure that the Department continues to implement its policy of fully considering the needs of all transportation system users, including non-motorized users, in all its operations.

For these reasons I am returning SB 1381 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1401 without my signature because the impetus of the study required in the bill is contrary to the direction that my Administration has proposed regarding pension reform and costs. The findings from this study would be used to determine whether the retirements benefits paid to this specific retiree group are enough; these findings could lead to asking for more benefits to be paid out.

This bill would require the California Public Employees' Retirement System (CalPERS) to conduct a study of the adequacy of retirement benefits paid to state members, and their survivors and beneficiaries, who meet specified criteria. CalPERS is required to report its findings to the Legislature and the Governor by December 31, 2005.

CalPERS recently undertook a benefit adequacy study reporting on the adequacy of benefits for career employees with 25 to 30 years of service. The results of that study were reported to the CalPERS board in July 2000 and July 2002. There is no need for another study at this time as current reports are sufficient for assessing the adequacy of retirement benefits paid to certain state retirees.

Until such a time as our fiscal house is in order, it is inappropriate to require additional reporting requirements on any state department or agency for reports that would not further reform government spending.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Governor's Office, State Capitol
September 15, 2004

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1442 without my signature.

This bill would create a new commission to evaluate coordination and funding for adult education and community college non-credit courses. Creating a new commission for this purpose would result in new costs and redundant government bureaucracy. While the bill specifies that these costs would be absorbed by the Community College Chancellor's Office and the State Department of Education, the result would be to simply displace other work done by these offices. Further, California's current education governance structure already includes advisory bodies from which the Governor and the Legislature may seek analysis and recommendations regarding coordination and funding for adult education.

In addition, the California Performance Review has recently completed an intensive evaluation of state governance structures and operations, including missions, organizational structures, agency operations, and overall contributions and makes significant recommendations regarding the governance of education. The review specifically targets agencies with overlapping duties, redundant reporting requirements, and out-dated functions. It is premature to make any changes to existing agencies or commissions until these recommendations are fully vetted by the Administration, the Legislature, and the public.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

I am returning Senate Bill 1567 without my signature.

This bill authorizes the Coastal Conservancy to enter into Joint Power Agreements to further the purposes of the San Francisco Bay Area Conservancy Program. Under the existing Joint Exercise of Powers Act the Conservancy already has authority to enter into Joint Power Agreements. This bill is unnecessary.

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1601 without my signature.

Government Agencies at all levels are struggling to meet their pension obligations due to a number of factors including poor stock market performances, higher retirement benefits given to public employees, increases in disability-related retirements, salary increases and longer life expectancy of retired employees.

This bill impacts counties that operate retirement systems subject to the County Employees' Retirement Act of 1937. Specifically, this measure allows retiring members to receive a lump sum payment in lieu of monthly payments and requires safety members be paid retroactively based on new enhanced safety member formulas.

By mandating these additional benefits, this bill puts yet another fiscal strain on local governments. This bill does not allow a local jurisdiction the option to make the decision to include prior year's service, instead it mandates the retroactive payment of the benefit.

As such, this bill represents another increase in local government employee benefits at a time when the ability for counties to pay higher contributions is in question.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

This legislation is not necessary to develop options for restructuring Economic Impact Aid (EIA) funding. I believe this work can be accomplished from within existing resources and does not require the redirection of $1 million in federal funds as this bill provides. I direct the Department of Finance and the Secretary for Education to work in collaboration with the Legislative Analyst's Office and the State Department of Education to develop options for consideration in restructuring the EIA funding formula.

This bill attempts inappropriately to modify the process by which the Governor makes deputy chancellor and vice chancellor appointments to the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. The Board of Governors already provides input and recommendation for appointments prior to the Governor's decision on those appointees.

Changing this process would weaken the Governor's ability to effectively administer state agencies in the Executive Branch.

Therefore, I am unable to sign this bill.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 651 without my signature.

While I greatly applaud the author's general intent to lower the number of special education referrals for students who have not learned how to read and to provide assistance to these students, this bill creates a program that is essentially duplicative of efforts addressed through the 2004–05 Budget Act. The budget included a $29.6 million appropriation for purposes of the Reading First program. As a condition of receiving these grant funds, grantees are required to provide a plan to lower the number of special education referrals based upon reading below grade-level and to provide alternative assistance to these pupils.

These plans would consist of, but not be limited to, providing diagnostic reading assessments, teacher release time to review assessment information and conduct reading intervention planning sessions, providing instruction to pupils identified as having reading difficulties, and teacher participation in the professional development activities focused on assisting students with reading difficulties. Because these funds and efforts are now in place since the signing of the budget, this bill is not necessary.

For these reasons I am unable to support this legislation.

In 1994 the voters approved Proposition 190 which created a new constitutional provision requiring the Supreme Court to adopt rules for the conduct of judges, both on and off the bench. These rules clearly describe the responsibility of judicial officers to ensure impartiality. While I commend the author for his efforts to improve public trust in the judicial system, this bill is unnecessary and seeks to solve a problem which the voters of this state and the courts have already addressed.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

While I favor accountability for all levels of education, this bill mainly establishes only a reporting structure for four broad policy goals rather than providing for outcomes, such as performance based measures, historically associated with accountability systems.

Furthermore, the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the body charged with collecting and analyzing the data under this proposal, and the other higher education entities involved in data collection are proposed to be restructured by the California Performance Review. It is premature to implement a new data collection system until the recommendations of the team are reviewed and more fully vetted for feasibility and efficiency.

For these reasons, I am unable to support this measure.

While I appreciate the author's efforts to ensure the safety of California's ports by requiring tug boat escorts for vessels carrying specified hazardous materials, I am concerned that this bill would duplicate existing authorities and is inconsistent with advice from the experts on the State's harbor safety committees.

Protecting public safety and the environment from a potential spill of hazardous material is of paramount importance. California must do all it can to minimize the possibility of such a disaster. However, there are neither ship design issues nor a pattern of problems suggesting these vessels need tugboat escorts. In fact, since the creation of the Office of Spill Prevention and Response, there have been no reported harbor accidents involving ships carrying any of these materials.

The San Francisco Harbor Safety Committee considered the use of tugboat escorts for these types of vessels and concluded that escorts are not necessary, particularly since the US Coast Guard already exercises the authority to require tug escorts for any problem vessel. The Office of Spill Prevention and Response within the Resources Agency also has authority over this issue.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1648 without my signature.

The citizens of the State of California are blessed with a bounty of natural and environmental resources including federal, state, and local parks, wildlife refuges, and recreation areas, existing from the coastline to the desert, the Sierra's to the sea. The state of California owns and cooperatively manages many natural and environmental assets with varying missions, purposes, and goals for the benefit and enjoyment of all Californians.

The Jackson State Demonstration Forest was acquired nearly 60 years ago to serve as a research, education, and demonstration facility for sustainable forestry management practices. Along with the forestry mission, it also provides a landscape for environmental and biological research and recreation. Since 1947, the Jackson State Demonstration Forest has been managed by the Department of Forestry under four different management plans approved by the Board of Forestry with each new plan reflecting the development of new progressive management concepts and new resource protections. The forest also provides considerable revenues that benefit all Californians by funding the Urban Forestry Program, State Nurseries, California Forest Improvement Program, Forest Pest Management, and Watershed Assessment.

This bill makes specific declarations and findings regarding state owned and managed forests, redefines several forestry terms, creates two advisory councils, and alters the mission. While I am generally very supportive of increasing citizens participation in government, this bill has created an advisory council with many concerns including the composition, appointment authority, and lack of professional expertise essential for proper function of a committee with the extensive authority created in this measure. Additionally, this bill would redefine terms that are supported by years of professional practice and legal rancor.

Finally, the state has many assets held in public trust with differing missions and purposes. Multiple-use of assets is always preferred where the mission and purpose are not compromised. The Department of Forestry and Board of Forestry have continually strived to make progress towards diversifying the opportunities for multiple-use of the state demonstration forests including increased recreation, research, and environmental protection. Some of the provisions in this bill may compromise the mission and purpose of these properties reducing the overall value of the assets for all Californians.

For these reasons I am unable to support this measure.

Sincerely,

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 1851 without my signature.

This bill requires new state buildings to exceed current energy efficiency standards and be constructed and/or renovated to incorporate green building elements that are cost-effective.

Early in my Administration, I directed Secretary Tamminen to establish a working group to develop green building bank initiatives for both public and private buildings. Members of the working group include public sector decision makers, commercial real estate business owners and managers, energy experts and financial managers. The group is currently developing recommendations for a comprehensive program to dramatically advance energy conservation as well as incorporate other green building principles into commercial buildings.

Additionally, this bill is similar to the executive order passed in the prior administration which directed all state agencies to improve energy efficiency in all state buildings. This order has not been rescinded and is still in effect. Since this bill would codify much of an existing executive order, it would not improve upon existing efforts to increase adoption of sustainable building practices in California.

This bill would create additional pressure on available state and local school bond funds without first determining whether other options are available to school districts that would be impacted by the bill.

While I recognize that some elementary school districts may be operating certain schools in overcrowded school conditions, this bill fails to incorporate any determination of severity of overcrowding conditions or require that a district consider other options, such as realignment of attendance areas or relocation of portable classrooms, to remedy overcrowded conditions. Consequently, at a time when the known need for school construction funds exceeds currently available bond funds, more critically overcrowded projects could go unfunded.

For these reasons, I am unable to sign this measure.

This measure places unnecessary, burdensome restrictions on businesses attempting to expand in California. Local communities are already free to decide between rejecting or embracing any retail development. By requiring the approval of an economic impact report prior to approval of a development project that includes a "superstore retailer," this bill would create a system of costly hurdles that these retailers would need to overcome before opening a new facility in a city or county.

The declared intent of this bill is "to promote market competition and economic development," but instead it would stifle market competition and expansion of employment within California. Such negative economic impacts run contrary to my continuing efforts to encourage business development and create a better economic climate within California.

For these reasons I am unable to support this measure.

While I support providing assistance to public school students who may be at risk for substance use and abuse, this bill would remove the flexibility for implementing a drug testing policy. Depriving schools of authority in determining and establishing drug testing policies and practice compromises local control. All Californians across the state should share the goal of making our schools a safe, drug free environment for students to learn and thrive. However, specific drug testing policies in schools are locally determined issues. Therefore, statewide legislation is unnecessary.

Currently, if a community determines that a drug testing policy is necessary, local officials have the ability to establish the specifics of that policy. I cannot support legislation that eliminates the ability of local school districts to make decisions based on the needs and values of their community.

California's laws already impose strict liability on gun owners who allow a child to access their firearm. Ensuring firearms are stored properly is an important public health goal and that is why I support the current criminal storage laws. The additional firearm storage restrictions proposed by SB 1140 are vague and unnecessary to our criminal justice system.

Strict liability is the most stringent legal liability theory available and only five other states beside California currently impose such a harsh penalty. This bill would further expand the liability to situations that cannot be easily defined and thereby provides no guidance to a person as to how to avoid criminal penalties. Such ambiguity in the law invites arbitrary enforcement and judicial review.

Unfortunately, this bill does more to confuse an already complicated area of the law than to protect children. Before a government exercises its power to take away one's liberty, it should be clear to every person what actions will cause them to forfeit their freedom. Instead of adding to the lengthy and complex area of firearm laws, a reorganization of the current laws should be undertaken to ensure that statutes that impose criminal penalties are easily understandable.

This bill proposes an ammunition registration process that has already been considered and rejected by the federal government when they repealed a substantially similar law citing it was simply unworkable and offered no public safety benefit. In addition, no other state collects information on ammunition sales or purchasers. Forensic testing of ammunition used in a crime is the most effective way of tracing criminal activity.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

While I am supportive of increasing the amount of coordination and information shared by state agencies, I do not believe that the council established by this bill would provide the most effective method of accomplishing that goal. The council would be tasked with completing a complex and important mission but would have several statutory limitations, including a very short time frame.

Through an Executive Order I am directing the Office of Emergency Services to conduct a comprehensive review of existing programs intended to protect the elderly from all types of abuse and to ensure programs provide more efficient and effective methods for fighting financial crimes against seniors, including potential funding sources to carry out this objective. I am also directing the Office of Emergency Services to develop recommendations that will serve our elderly community by enhancing coordination among law enforcement and governmental agencies in the areas of information-sharing, training, and crime prevention. It is important that protection services are geared to improving the life our seniors and that is why I am directing our agencies to develop a plan to coordinate state and local efforts.

While I am supportive of transparent and accessible tax base information, this is already adequately provided by existing systems. If school districts need this information, they currently have the ability to compile it by working with local tax officials.

This bill would authorize health care providers who treat Medi-Cal patients injured by a third party to claim "reasonable and necessary" charges from the liable third party, rather than the Medi-Cal reimbursement rate. This bill would also extend counties' current lien rights against judgments to also include settlements, compromises, arbitration awards, mediation settlements, and any other recovery obtained.

I understand that health care providers should be reasonably compensated for services they provide, but this bill proposes a solution that provides for inflated medical and settlement costs.

Earlier this year, we struggled to control the growing costs of medical care within the workers' compensation system. We fought to limit the litigious nature encouraged by a system that benefited special interests at the expense of California workers. If enacted, SB 494 will encourage the same abuse we worked to correct in the workers' compensation system within the auto insurance market.

Finally, and perhaps most troubling is the fact that the inflated cost to the insurance system for these overcharges will be borne by consumers, increasing the likelihood of growing the number of uninsured in this state.

I am unable to support this measure because, unlike Proposition 36, this bill would allow violent juvenile offenders to participate in drug diversion programs if they meet certain criteria. When the voters of this State approved Proposition 36, the voters intended that it apply only to those individuals that did not have prior serious or violent offenses.

Existing law currently allows the Youth Authority Board to order community drug treatment programs for wards on parole, in lieu of confinement. I support the author's efforts to strengthen family ties and break the cycle of incarceration. Unfortunately, I do not support the provisions of this bill that require the courts to provide a defendant with information regarding the potential impact of accepting a plea. These provisions could result in lengthy court hearings and increased costs. The worthy goal of ensuring defendants are advised of the collateral consequences of their decisions should not require the state to accept procedures that are overbroad and create a potential for criminal pleas to be overturned on a technicality. This procedure undermines the longstanding criminal justice policy which favors finality of judgment for the victims, the defendant, and the state. While I appreciate and understand the author's desire to provide a parent with more information, conviction of a crime has many consequences, most of which are not specifically outlined by the court when a plea is entered but is covered by attorneys prior to the proceedings.

Certified green business programs are a useful tool for consumers, businesses and government entities to promote environmentally responsible practices. These green certification programs have been increasing in numbers since 1996. This bill creates a "California certified" green business program for businesses that comply with specified criteria and checklists adopted by California State University (CSU) Hayward's Environmental Finance Center.

This bill creates one-size-fits all approach to green business programs and does not give local governments the flexibility to respond to the needs of businesses in their community. This bill impedes the ability of existing local green business programs that operate independently to acquire grant funding. Several successful green business programs are already in place

I share the author's concern about the cost of health care and the implications of overwhelming and unexpected hospital bills on uninsured Californians. Large hospital bills can lead to devastating financial consequences for those least capable of bearing the costs of unplanned visits to the hospital.

Recently, the hospital community voluntarily adopted guidelines to assist low-income uninsured Californians who receive services at a hospital but cannot afford to pay the bill in full. At a minimum, these guidelines allow patients who are at or below 300% of the federal poverty level to apply to the hospital for financial assistance. Additionally, the guidelines limit the costs of procedures to reflect the prices paid by government payers, require hospitals to post their financial assistance policies and their eligibility criteria and encourage hospitals to help eligible patients apply for public health programs. By choice, many hospital systems have adopted guidelines that exceed the aforementioned minimum standards adopted by the hospital community, further protecting patients at risk of financial harm.

I recognize the proponent's desire to assist self-pay patients with large hospital bills by requiring price discounts but I also recognize that the hospital community took a significant step in adopting these guidelines, especially those hospitals that are struggling financially themselves. Ultimately, I decided that the voluntary guidelines must be given time to be implemented and reviewed.

Nevertheless, it is my expectation that all hospitals in the state uphold their important commitment to the voluntary guidelines and that they are applied evenly, consistently and without hesitation. A strong commitment to the guidelines, in lieu of a statutory mandate, ensures that hospitals retain individual flexibility in recognition that some hospitals face different challenges than others.

Technically, the provisions of this bill could create an unintended impact on federal reimbursements for the Medi-Cal program, which would neither help patients or hospitals. In fact, a reduction in federal reimbursements to hospitals erodes the safety net which generally cares for those individuals that this bill is intended to help.

While sincere and well-intentioned, this solution is not supportable. Therefore, I am returning this bill without my signature.

When I signed the Executive Order in February 2004 creating the California Performance Review, its mission was to make fundamental changes in state government, establish new procedures to create greater efficiencies, prioritize government functions, and create true accountability over the fiscal management of state resources. Energy administration consolidation and restructuring is a priority of my administration and we will pursue comprehensive reform in the next legislative session.

This bill would eliminate the Energy Oversight Board shifting the Boards responsibilities in a manner inconsistent with the recommendations presented by the California Performance Review and prior to completion of an energy reorganization plan. As proposed, this bill would complicate and compromise the administrations ability to integrate the State's fragmented energy functions and implement a comprehensive energy policy. Although I concur with the singular intent to abolish a non-essential board, SB 920 is premature.

The Kaiser Family Foundation and Health Research and Educational Trust recently determined that health insurance premiums have steadily risen by double digits every year since 2001. The same group found that the most common reason stated by employers for not offering health coverage was high premiums.

While I want children with hearing impairments to have hearing aids, I am concerned that increasing the cost of health coverage by mandating benefits, if even by a small amount, would have the far more serious consequence of leaving some children without health insurance whatsoever.

Emergency room closures pose a threat to the health of all Californians and this serious issue should be addressed. While I support the author's intention to require hospitals to notify the regional emergency services agency when they plan to close an emergency room, the minimum one year moratorium prohibiting a licensee from expanding services in other areas of the community and state is excessive and would further decrease access to care.

While well-intentioned, this bill reflects a difficult policy choice: protect access to affordable health insurance products that an average Californian can purchase or mandate that every person who pays for their own health insurance buys coverage for maternity services.

The Kaiser Family Foundation and Health Research and Educational Trust recently determined that health insurance premiums have steadily risen by double digits every year since 2001. In this period of significant premium inflation for consumers, mandating Californians to purchase new benefits is counterproductive to efforts to make health insurance more affordable and available to low-to-moderate income people or those who do not receive employer-sponsored coverage. I am sincerely concerned that enactment of this legislation would force Californians that purchase their own coverage, for themselves and their children, out of the health insurance market altogether. In fact, the California Health Benefits Review

Program determined that nearly 2000 Californians would lose their health insurance coverage as a result of this legislation.

Ultimately, consumer choice and affordability prevailed in my mind over a mandated benefit which is currently and abundantly available in the market. Statistics show that over 97% of those insured have coverage for maternity services with the remaining 3% choosing not to purchase such coverage.

Since there is not an issue of consumer access or availability being addressed by this bill, mandating that children, men, and women past child-bearing years needlessly purchase this coverage is not sound public policy. Before new mandates are created, the barriers to accessibility should first be addressed. Affordability of coverage is paramount to begin decreasing the number of uninsured Californians.

This bill mandates every individual or group health insurance policy to cover maternity services.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

This bill would give health care providers a cause of action under the Knox-Keene Act to sue health care service plans for violations of the Act's prompt payment claims provisions.

Doctors should be compensated by health plans in a timely manner after they provide services to patients, but there are already laws in place to require prompt payments from health plans. Additionally, the Department of Managed Health Care (DMHC) recently promulgated regulations to spell out such payment requirements, which have only been in effect since January of this year. The DMHC is currently enforcing these regulations and should be given sufficient time to implement and evaluate them for effectiveness. If after an appropriate length of time the regulations warrant changes, then improvements to the regulatory process should be discussed.

In the meantime, doctors currently have numerous remedies under existing law if plans fail to pay their claims on time, including using the health plans' dispute resolution system and suing for breach of contract.

This bill repeals and amends various provisions regarding State personal services contracts and establishes that if the State Personnel Board (SPB) disapproves any contract, any individual could sue for the recovery of any State funds paid to a contractor, even if the contract has been negotiated and the contractor has begun the work.

This bill adds additional and unnecessary burdens to the contracting process of the State by requiring that no work can be done until SPB, and labor organizations, have approved or disapproved the contract. It also eliminates the 30-day timeframe in which the SPB must act on personal services contracts leading to increased delays and costs in getting contracts approved and awarded.

In addition, it makes contractors liable for the amount already paid out under the contract if SPB determines that a current contract does not comply, thereby putting private contractors at risk to incur fines even though they entered into a contract in good faith and performed the work satisfactorily.

This bill creates significant delays, backlogs and eliminates competition. Such delays will unnecessarily impact essential public services and places increased costs on all state agencies, including SPB.

While I support the author's goal of coordination between state and local agencies on oversight of brownfield cleanup projects, current law already has an established coordination program for such projects.

This bill would establish a pilot project intended to provide additional coordination of the interactions between local public agencies and the Department of Toxic Substances Control, the State Water Resources Control Board, and Regional Water Quality Control Boards on brownfield cleanup and redevelopment. This pilot project would create an unnecessary and redundant oversight program with significant costs. The California Environmental Protection Agency Site Designation Committee has already established much of what the author wants to demonstrate with her proposed pilot program.

Further this is not the year to add another unnecessary program to California statute. The bill would create an additional bureaucratic layer, resulting in increased costs to the state during a time of budget shortfalls.

This bill establishes a dangerous precedent by authorizing the Baldwin Hills Conservancy to circumvent the current review and approval process relative to land purchase transactions. Under current law, the Conservancy must comply with the Property Acquisition Law, which requires land acquisition appraisals to go through the acquisition approval process of the Department of General Services (DGS) and the Public Works Board (PWB). The current process works to protect the state's taxpayers as well as the acquiring agency in closing real estate transactions.

This bill authorizes the Baldwin Hills Conservancy to contract with state-licensed and certified appraisers with oil field acquisition and management experience, other than the Department of General Services, to conduct land appraisals required for the acquisition approval process of the State Public Works Board. It will still have DGS conduct the final review of these appraisals.

The bill also redefines the Conservancy's area to include Vista Pacifica and Blair Hill, and exclude the area constituting Culver City. There is merit to reviewing the boundaries of the Baldwin Hills Conservancy to include Vista Pacifica and Blair Hill and exclude the area in Culver City which the author may want to pursue in the next legislative session.

While I am very sympathetic towards victims who were involuntarily sent to Mexico as a result of repatriation efforts within California between 1929 and 1944, these individuals were able to pursue legal action within a fixed period of time. The purpose of the statute of limitation is to provide protection to defendants from antiquated claims. Such older claims are difficult to litigate against due to a loss of witnesses, evidence, and other factors.

Additionally, private litigation of potentially thousands of claims against the state, could burden the courts, result in increased costs to the state and local governments, and possibly require a settlement account for any successful claim. If the Legislature should decide, as a matter of public policy, to provide compensation, a reparations fund should be created to expedite the processing of these claims. This would be an efficient and less expensive method for both the taxpayers and the plaintiffs.

Once legislation creating this policy is enacted, it can be considered along with all other priorities and in the context of the State's fiscal condition at that time.

This measure would amend the definition of "telemedicine" in the Business and Professions Code to include "store and forward" technologies for dermatology and ophthalmology. Through a cross-reference to the Welfare & Institutions Code, this bill has the effect of authorizing a "consultation" level of reimbursement to providers who are interpreting diagnostic or lab results without examining or interacting with the patient. The Medi-Cal program provides reimbursement for these interpretation services at a lower fee level which reflects the lack of physician-patient interaction. This bill would have the effect of increasing Medi-Cal program costs with no increase in patient access to care.

In addition to the concerns listed above, this bill could also undermine important anti-fraud measures in the Medi-Cal program. In an effort to verify that services are being properly provided, Medi-Cal is sending notices to beneficiaries when services are billed and asking that the beneficiary verify the provision of these services. This bill, with no requirement for patient interaction with the physician, would undermine this effort.

Because store-and-forward technologies offer opportunities for improved patient care, my Administration is prepared to work with the Legislature to draft a measure that will take advantage of those opportunities, while minimizing the possibility of fraud and abuse. This bill is inconsistent with the State Board of Education's educational principles to ensure that classroom curriculum is rigorous, standards-aligned and research-based. Provisions in the bill requiring an automatic approval by the State Board of Education within 90 days of submitted instructional materials, unless certain findings are made, could result in a more lenient review standard or a higher rejection rate. Increasing California's commitment to renewable electricity is a cornerstone of my administration's energy and environmental action plans. My action plans outline my goal of accelerating the requirement that 20% of a utility energy portfolio be from renewable sources by 2010 and 33% be from renewable sources by 2020. The California Public Utility Commission (PUC) has acted directing the utilities to meet the accelerated date of compliance during their ongoing procurement planning process. Additionally, the PUC has also acted on my request to establish a loading order for electricity that has conservation and renewable energy sources ahead of traditional fossil fuel.

While I appreciate the author's intent to codify my action plan acceleration of the renewable energy portfolio standard, this bill has several omissions and establishes an onerous process that will impede the achievement of this goal. This bill omits municipal utilities which service almost 30% percent of the energy consumed in California from any renewable portfolio requirements. It also creates a renewable credit market that has several onerous restrictions. Finally, it fails to recognize California's commitment and reliance on an electricity market that includes the entire western region of the country.

I look forward to working with the legislature to continue to increase California's commitment to renewable energy. If codification of my action plan is desired, we should strive for legislation that results in a vibrant competitive renewable energy market and works to advance the 20% renewable energy goal by 2010 rather than impede the progress we have made.

This bill was introduced in response to a widely publicized landlord who owned 44 properties in the Sacramento area. Thirty-one (31) of these properties had some form of code violations ranging from minor to major violations. The owner of these properties refinanced his mortgages and received proceeds from the equity in the properties, however, did not utilize the funds to correct or fix these code violations. I feel strongly that landlords should be held responsible when their properties are in disarray and tenants are subjected to conditions that pose significant safety and health risks. However, this bill does not further that result and goal.

This bill prohibits certain mortgage lenders from making a loan secured by a deed of trust or mortgage on non-owner occupied residential property if there is a code violation pending. The bill specifically exempts federal lending institutions and banks chartered by the State of California through the Department of Financial Institutions.

This bill creates an uneven regulatory playing field creating a hardship and competitive disadvantage for those financial institutions which are subject to the restrictions of this bill. Additionally, the requirements of this bill could result in lenders being unwilling to finance loans with code violations; increasing the likelihood code violations will go uncorrected.

Finally, SB 1508 would make certain lenders de facto code enforcers, a function that should remain with the local municipality.

I support the work of county elder death review teams that are designed to assist in identifying and reviewing suspicious elder deaths. These multidisciplinary teams bring together experts from many departments including law enforcement, health care, adult protective services and the coroner's office.

In addition to this effort, county coroners are required to examine all cases where an unnatural death is suspected or where a physician has not been in attendance within the past 20 days. Current law also requires the majority of health care providers to be mandatory reporters of elder abuse or neglect. There is no evidence that the information currently provided to the elder death review teams is inadequate to assist in identifying and reviewing suspicious elder deaths.

I support the intent of this measure to detect fraud in the Medi-Cal program and have sponsored or supported a number of measures to further strengthen the Department of Health Services' (DHS) capacity to crack down on Medi-Cal provider and beneficiary fraud.

Notwithstanding my commitment to Medi-Cal fraud prevention, legislation is not required to perform the risk assessment and analysis required by SB 1850. This bill would mandate that specific types of risk-assessment tests be conducted. While this testing procedure may be viable today, fraud detection methodologies need to be dynamic to keep up with the rapidly changing fraud trends. By mandating in statute this specific type of analysis on a widespread and routine basis, DHS would have to make system changes that would have a significant cost. DHS currently performs field audits followed up with recoveries, utilization controls, and, if evidence of fraud is found, provider sanctions such as temporary suspensions.

During these tough budget times, legislation that impacts the General Fund must be weighed against programs that already exist in DHS that are effectively combating fraud and abuse in the Medi-Cal program. DHS would incur a total cost of $1,924,165 for the first year with ongoing annual costs of $1,440,000 to implement the provisions of this bill.

A budget augmentation approved by the Legislature in fiscal year 2003–04 provided for an Error Rate Study to be conducted by DHS to determine the areas of vulnerability through statistical sampling and evaluation of Medi-Cal claims. This study will be completed this fall. Until the Error Rate Study is completed, legislating specific analysis and review requirements is premature and a cost benefit cannot be calculated.

California law relative to how employers must pay their employees and what, if any, fees may be charged in association with cashing a paycheck are confusing, antiquated and do not conform with modern banking practices. This particularly affects those low-wage workers who too often have no relationship with a bank and instead pay a fee to cash their paychecks. Litigation is currently pending that may resolve some of this confusion.

Unfortunately, this bill does nothing to remove the confusion that exists in this area, but instead targets the practice of one particular employer that offers, but does not require, an option to employees to cash their paychecks for a nominal fee. Although I encourage these workers to establish a relationship with a financial institution so that they may cash their paychecks without paying a fee, I see no reason to ban in statute the option currently offered by the aforementioned employer. Worse, I fear that the absence of this option will force employees to use more expensive options to cash their paychecks.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

This bill would lower certain monetary thresholds which trigger electronic filing requirements.

On-line campaign reporting is one of the most significant advancements in the area of political reform, since the original passage of the Political Reform Act in 1974. Under existing law, the Secretary of State was required, by December 31, 2002, to provide a means or method whereby filers subject to the Online Disclosure Act may submit required filings free of charge. While the Secretary of State's Office has reported significant progress toward the development of a free on-line filing system, the system has not been completed.

Although I have no issues with the concept of lowering the threshold to utilize online filing systems, the system is not ready. Today I have signed SB 1712 which would require the Secretary of State to report on the filing requirements to promote on-line submissions. When that report is complete or if the system is developed beforehand, then the lowering of the threshold would be appropriate.

For this reason I am returning this bill without my signature.

I am returning Senate Bill 1365 without my signature.

I support the author's goal to ensure that Californians are provided comprehensive services supporting the inclusion of persons with disabilities, regardless of age or type of disability, into community life in lieu of unnecessary institutionalization, consistent with the U.S. Supreme Court's Olmstead decision. I fully support the principles underlying the Olmstead decision and am committed to making changes in State programs and policies to ensure that persons with disabilities have appropriate access to and choices of community based services and placement options.

I have worked to develop innovative approaches to support the ability of people to live in their homes and communities rather than in institutions, including securing a federal Independence Plus waiver to ensure continued provision of in home services. My Administration is also developing statewide assessment tools to help people move out of institutions or remain in home. In addition, the Health and Human Services Agency (HHS) has convened its Long Term Care Council to further develop the state plan and approach for meeting the requirements of the Olmstead decision.

California's Olmstead Plan, published in 2003, provides an important roadmap for supporting the ability of state residents to live in the most integrated setting possible. My Administration is evaluating this plan and reviewing the best ways to meet the intent of the Olmstead decision. In that regard, I believe that further review, development and implementation of the Olmstead Plan must be informed by input from a diversity of stakeholders. I do not believe that it is necessary to establish such a process in statute, as proposed by SB 1365, and consider the Olmstead Advisory Council established by SB 1365 to be duplicative of efforts already underway by HHS to convene an Olmstead Advisory Committee.

Given my Administration's strong commitment to the principles and objectives of the Olmstead Plan as well as to the value of stakeholder engagement and participation, I believe that formalizing HHS's establishment of an Olmstead Advisory Committee (Committee) is appropriate. I therefore have issued Executive Order S-18-04 directing HHS to establish a Committee to provide input to the Agency on its efforts to evaluate, implement and monitor the Olmstead Plan, on recommended actions to improve California's long-term care system, and on opportunities to fund expanded or new activities to support individuals with disabilities in their community. My Administration looks forward to working with the author in identifying strong candidates to serve on this Committee.

For these reasons I am unable to sign this measure.

This bill would allow school districts to claim apportionment funding for students that are not supervised by a qualified, certificated teacher, in an in-school suspension setting. Ensuring the protection of the agricultural, wildlife, and recreational resources of the Delta is a worthy public policy goal, however, protection of these important natural resources warrants a comprehensive and coordinated approach. In order to achieve a meaningful solution to the future protection of the Delta, we must build upon existing programs and funding sources, not develop new ones.

In February 2004, the Resources Agency submitted a report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee. Neither of these bills comprehensively addresses the solutions contained in the report. The bills also fail to recognize and propose coordination with other habitat and conservation programs that are ongoing in the Delta. While I support ensuring parents are not taken advantage of in securing child support payments, this bill will have the effect of severely limiting a consumer’s choice to go to a private collection agency when government efforts to collect the owed child support falter.

Private child support collection agencies are valuable participants along with government efforts to collect child support and offer consumers a choice. I welcome many of the provisions in this bill that would ensure families are protected when they choose to contract with a private agency; however the provisions such as capping the amount a collection agency can charge and prohibiting a person from contracting with a private collection agency when they have received partial payment in the last six months are particularly onerous to the industry and to parents seeking choices. Federal review of the subject, as well as the California Performance Review, have identified the need for private agencies in child support collections.

As much as I believe Legislative employees deserve the one-time benefit provided by this bill, I am unable to sign this bill at this time. We are in a time of unprecedented economic crisis and it is vital to remain prudent and restrain from spending money the state doesn't have.

When the people of California voted overwhelmingly for Proposition 140, they decided that the Legislature should operate within a specific budget. This bill circumvents the will of the people by passing the costs of this extra benefit for the Legislature to the State.

This bill reduces the retirement contribution rate paid by legislative employees who participate in the Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) from 5% to zero contribution for a twelve (12) month period. The temporary reduction for these employees comes at a time when the state's pension costs are consistently increasing. The fact that this bill sunsets within a year does not address the difficulty posed by the additional short-term fiscal pressure this measure will impose.

I believe that the State and local governments must share responsibility and work collaboratively to ensure the successful transition of Sexually Violent Predators (SVPs) released into the community by the courts. That is why I recently signed Assembly Bill 493 (Salinas), which would provide clarity earlier in the court process on the question of where that SVP should be released and ensures that counties and the State are working together to deliver public safety to the communities effected.

This bill will allow local governments, until January 1, 2007, to claim State reimbursements for local law enforcement costs associated with the release of SVPs from State custody. The supervision of all sexual offenders in the community is an important priority of local law enforcement as is the supervision of all previous offenders. The State does not reimburse local governments for the costs associated with the supervision of other felons upon release, so it is unclear as to the need to deviate from this policy for this subset of offenders.

This bill would require the courts and probation officers to consider the educational needs of minors when considering the minor's disposition.

While I support reinforcing the importance of educational needs in the minor's disposition process, SB 449 would impose additional responsibilities on county courts and probation departments, and make current requirements redundant.

In addition, this bill will chapter out portions of a bill I signed, Assembly Bill 2795 which gives probation officers the full extent of the time needed to prepare an evaluation of a minor's needs prior to disposition. This is an important policy because it will ensure plans are individualized versus a one-size fits all approach.

I believe there are few things as important as working to ensure the safety and protection of our great state. This bill seeks to protect the state's infrastructure by prohibiting work that is essential to homeland security from being performed outside the United States. However, this bill may be unconstitutional under the commerce clause. The language is overly broad and may inadvertently create issues concerning international commerce.

There is no guarantee that work performed within a specific locality will somehow be inherently safer than work performed in another country. The types and levels of security measures taken to protect such information whether here or abroad is a better indicator of how safe that information will remain. Without taking the necessary security measures, "information essential to homeland security" could be compromised even if it was performed within the United States. This bill will add an additional restriction on contractors that do business with the state and restrict competition which will, ultimately, result in higher prices for services without increasing homeland security.

Fire protection is one of California's most critical public safety missions; however, I cannot support this measure because it would earmark federal homeland security funds for one specific purpose at the expense of other programs that ensure homeland security efforts benefit all Californians. It would be unwise to dedicate funds without considering all potential security and safety needs.

In addition, the funding source identified in this bill is inappropriate. Funding obtained from the Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Act of 2004 (P.L. 108-90) is limited by federal guidelines and does not provide for the purchase of fire engines. The cost of one hundred fifty new fire engines far exceeds the appropriation contained in the bill.

A top priority of my Administration is to provide access to affordable prescription drugs. However, importing drugs from Canada or assisting residents in their efforts to do so would violate federal law and could expose the State to civil, criminal and tort liability. We all would like to see low-income uninsured residents have access to more affordable medicines, but measures such as this, over-simplify the complex safety, trade, supply and pricing issues involved in this marketplace. In light of these circumstances, I do not believe SB 1144 will bring the necessary relief to Californians who require assistance in accessing necessary medicines.

In an effort to bring significant price reductions to California's most at-risk consumers, my Administration put forward "California Rx" that seeks to provide real assistance to these Californians. California Rx represents an approach that harnesses the purchasing power of low-income seniors and uninsured Californians up to 300% of the federal poverty level ($47,000 for a family of three) to secure meaningful discounts in prescription drug costs. My Administration has begun negotiations with pharmaceutical companies regarding their participation in California Rx. While I am encouraged by the concrete commitments made by some members of the industry, I am disappointed that many companies have not yet stepped up and offered meaningful discounts for this population. Over the next six weeks, I will continue negotiations to secure significant discounts for California's low-income uninsured, and I hope to move forward with a legislative proposal in January 2005 to implement California Rx. If, however, specific companies and the industry as a whole are not willing to provide a real solution to this problem, I will work closely with the State Legislature to develop an approach that guarantees significant reductions in prescription drug prices for California's low-income uninsured residents.

Come January, I will propose legislation that will bring lower-cost prescription drugs to California's most vulnerable residents. I am still hopeful that California Rx will be the vehicle to secure those price reductions, but for a voluntary, negotiated model such as California Rx to work, the drug companies must come forward and negotiate in good faith. I call upon the companies to help solve this problem through California Rx; but if I cannot rely on the good faith negotiations of the industry, I will use all the options at my disposal to secure lower-cost prescription drugs for low-income, uninsured Californians.

This bill imposes new mandates on companies offering consumer rebates by requiring a minimum of 30 days for the consumer to submit the rebate request from the date the consumer purchases the product or becomes eligible for the rebate. This bill further requires the rebate to be returned back to the consumer within the same specified number of days provided to the customer to submit the rebate request and prohibits a company from requiring more than receipt as proof of purchase.

While this bill purports to provide flexible options for compliance for companies offering rebates, the bill will have the effect of reducing the number of rebates offered by manufacturers. This bill will present unnecessary barriers for companies doing business in multiple states since the rebate terms for California residents would differ from those in the rest of the country.

Existing contract law and federal and state consumer protection laws make this bill unnecessary and could cause conflicts for companies that make nationwide rebates offered that would encourage companies to exclude California from their nationwide consumer rebate offers.

I believe that open access by the press is an important component of ensuring efficiency and effectiveness of government programs. However, this bill is unnecessary because the media currently enjoys wide ranging access to both prisons and inmates, including the right to interview random inmates during tours and specific inmates during the visitation program.

The California Department of Corrections' current policy is modeled after policies that have been upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court. The policy strikes the important balance between media access and appropriate correctional policies that must take into account the orderly administration of prisons.

Finally, it is important to avoid treating inmates as celebrities. Activities that would glamorize criminals at the expense of victims and the general public are unacceptable. A free flow of information from the prison environment into the outside world has taken place under the current policy as evidenced by the many published press accounts in the past year.

This bill authorizes the State Lands Commission to carry out a boundary settlement and trust exchange of specified lands on the former Oakland Army Base. One of the parcels impacted by this bill is important to the Department of Transportation as it is being used as a maintenance facility.

The Department of Transportation, the City of Oakland, and the Port of Oakland have been in negotiations over the use of the Public Trust Lands on the site of the former Oakland Army base. My administration engaged in good faith negotiations with the author over the provisions in the bill. Unfortunately, the legislative session came to closure before an equitable agreement could be concluded. This bill would require every hospital to establish an infection control program and collect data regarding hospital-acquired infections. It requires hospitals to make adjustments for risk and report it to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development (OSHPD). The bill requires the OSHPD to make the information public and to transmit it to the Department of Health Services.

Infection control programs have considerable merit and are currently in effect. The Department of Health Services and the Joint Commission on Accreditation of HealthCare Organizations scrutinize hospital infection control programs and the National Quality Initiative is expected to more than double the number of quality indicators tracked by May 2005. This calls into question the need of a new program to address this issue.

Additionally, the lack of data auditing in this bill is problematic. Not auditing avoids some costs but it also raises concerns about the quality and validity of the data collected and hence the overall effectiveness of the program. The absence of data auditing and review by impartial clinical experts may call into question the quality and ultimate validity of the data on hospital-acquired infections.

This bill imposes significant costs on hospitals and the OSHPD. Facing implementation of a number of well-intentioned but expensive mandates, many hospitals are not in a position to absorb the cost of a new program or reporting requirement. I believe that we must carefully weigh the value of additional mandates on hospitals against the potential of pushing some hospitals over the financial brink.

Implementation of this bill would impact the Health Data Planning Fund within OSHPD and could result in a deficiency within this Fund. In order to meet the requirements of the bill, OSHPD would have to redirect current staff and resources impacting existing programs and the delivery of services.

Finally, given the need for proper infection control, I encourage the hospital community and the medical community to collaborate to ensure that patients are protected from acquiring infections while in the hospital.

For the reasons stated above I am returning this measure without my signature.

I am returning Senate Bill 1492 without my signature.

This bill prohibits a health care business from transmitting an individual's health information outside of the United States.

This bill is unnecessary. Existing laws prohibit the sharing of an individual's medical information. The California Medical Information Act and the federal Health Insurance Portability Accountability Act (HIPAA) provide mechanisms to protect confidential information and remedies against those who violate the acts.

Therefore, I cannot sign this measure.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

I am returning Senate Bill 1525 without my signature.

As you know, this Administration is undertaking a comprehensive review of all state government functions through the California Performance Review (CPR). One of the recommendations from CPR is to place all direct health care services under the "Health Purchasing" Division while all prevention services would be placed under the "Public Health" Division. This bill would be inconsistent with that recommendation. I have directed the Secretary of the Health and Human Services Agency to review CPR's organizational recommendations closely. Pending completion of that review and input from my CPR Commission, I am not prepared to consolidate the two different program functions proposed by SB 1525 at this time.

In addition, the Department of Health Services is currently renegotiating the Family PACT waiver with the federal government. This bill and its expanded program delivery would complicate and perhaps jeopardize negotiations for continued federal funding.

However, I do feel that efforts to improve the efficiency and delivery of health care is important. Breast cancer is the most common cancer among women in California, regardless of race/ethnicity. This is a public health priority. Cancer Detection Programs: Every Woman Counts has laudable rates of breast and cervical cancer screening. Family PACT has been very successful in reducing unplanned pregnancies among lower income Californians and teen pregnancies in particular. This, too, is a public health priority. Therefore, I am instructing the Department of Health Services to investigate the consolidation of these two programs as well as opportunities to maximize federal funding.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

I am returning Senate Bill 1538 without my signature.

It is essential to both employees and employers that employees take advantage of the rest periods permitted them under existing law. Employees' health is dependent on appropriate rest, and well-rested employees create safer workplaces.

This bill is intended to encourage piece-rate workers to stop work for rest periods, by ensuring they are not financially penalized. However, it contains no mechanism to ensure that workers actually take rest periods. Furthermore, it creates costly burdens on employers. Specifically, SB 1538 would enact a complicated method that employers must use to calculate the payment of rest periods for agricultural or garment industry employees who earn wages on a piece rate basis. If the employer miscalculates, they would be subject to substantial penalties for underpayment.

I support strong enforcement of California's existing labor laws, as well as the continued education of workers as to their rights under the law. For example, the Labor and Workforce Development Agency recently conducted inspections of nearly 200 agricultural employers and distributed information on employee rights to over 11,000 farm workers. I am also directing the Labor and Workforce Development Agency to work with the agriculture and garment manufacturing industries—both the employers and the workers—to develop ways of better ensuring that employees are taking their rest periods.

Sincerely,

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor

While this bill may be a well-intentioned attempt to address the rising costs of prescription drugs to primary care clinics, it could have the unintended consequence of increasing drug costs to the California Medicaid Program, other government purchasers, and potentially the beneficiaries of those plans. Costs to the State will increase through a decline in manufacturer rebates as a result of the disclosure of proprietary information. This bill would require pharmaceutical manufacturers to contract with qualifying entities for discounts related to the Medicaid best price. Because qualifying entities do not have exemption from disclosure under the Public Records Act, these discounts would become known. Increasing the risk for exposure of a manufacturer's contract price may encourage manufacturers to avoid entering into contracts for drugs at prices lower than their lowest public available price.

Additionally, primary care clinics currently have power to create purchasing pools, utilize a Pharmacy Benefits Manager or Group Purchasing Organization, or purchase through contracts negotiated by the Department of General Services, to obtain drugs at the price manufacturers negotiate with their largest commercial clients.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

Safety of our food supply for the protection of our citizens is a priority of our State. California is one of 12 states that entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) governing the voluntary recall of meat and poultry products.

During recalls, participation and cooperation of the entire food chain is essential. This bill mandates reporting requirements that conflict with the MOU, compromising California's ability to obtain timely information from the federal government which could weaken our ability to protect public health.

To assist in improving the distribution of accurate timely information during these voluntary recalls, I direct the Department of Health Services to enter into a new MOU with USDA that expressly authorizes them to share recall information with local public health officials. This will increase the cooperation among all entities and provide greater protection of our states consumers.

It is critically important for us to ensure that California is well prepared for fighting wildland fires and that we take action to improve our fire response system. Equally important is developing and implementing programs to reduce hazardous fuels that are causing wildfires in California to be more frequent, destructive, and costly to suppress.

This bill would require the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection (CDF) to staff at least four persons on all department fire engines during fire season, and additionally require CDF to staff at least four persons year-round in Southern California pursuant to a specified schedule. The bill also requires CDF to prepare a biennial fire prevention plan and conduct an evaluation of the cost-effectiveness of the four-person staffing on its fire engines.

On May 7, 2004, I issued an Executive Order which directed CDF to secure and deploy the following additional resources to protect the safety of persons and property from wildfires during the 2004 fire season:

- Assign a minimum crew of four firefighters to 53 CDF engines in the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego;
- Assign additional resources in the CDF Contract Counties of Los Angeles, Ventura, and Orange as warranted based on established criteria of fire threat conditions;
- Place back into service ten refurbished fire engines to be staffed with a minimum crew of four firefighters to increase CDF fire engine resources to assist with wildfire suppression in the Counties of Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Diego;
- Staff four additional CDF Conservation Camp Fire Crews in the Southern portion of the state; and
- Lease, staff, and deploy a helicopter to be based in San Diego County.

The continued use of the Executive Order provides the flexibility to prioritize and increase wildland fire resources in areas of high fire danger that will help protect the citizens and the natural resources of this State against wildfires in a responsible and cost effective manner.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

The illegal possession and use of performance enhancing steroids is clearly prohibited and those existing laws should be strongly enforced to their full extent, particularly given the apparent heightened activity surrounding this dangerous practice. However, this bill focuses on performance-enhancing dietary supplements (PEDS) instead of focusing on ensuring that students participating in high school sports are not engaged in steroids use.

Furthermore, the technical definition of PEDS, as specified in the bill, is unclear, open-ended and difficult to interpret, making implementation problematic. Developing a list of PEDS based on the defined parameters will be a problem, since most dietary supplements are safe, and neither the Department of Health Services (DHS) nor the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) will be able to make any clear distinctions based on the criteria outlined in the bill. Currently, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulates dietary supplements. While this bill requires the DHS and the CIF to develop a list of PEDS to be used in regulating the participation of students in high school sports, this activity is best left with the FDA, which has a broader and deeper knowledge base to develop a scientifically validated list of harmful PEDS.

However, because of the importance of this issue, I encourage the Legislature to work with my Administration in developing a cost-effective way to ensure school personnel are adequately trained to identify and address the harmful effects of steroids use, so that students can be well informed, and intervention involving parents and coaches can be applied when appropriate.

While I support the idea of a transparent, open government, this bill would post information on the Web that is of little use to the public and could jeopardize the safety of correctional institutions. The identifying information contained in this bill could be used by gangs or other criminal elements to coordinate activities inside state correctional institutions. In addition, this bill would only require the information be posted on a quarterly basis. This outdated "lockdown" information would serve very limited, if any, useful purpose for the general public.

Currently, the Department of Corrections and California Youth Authority provide a wide variety of institutional information, including lockdown information, upon request to the Legislature and various public and private research groups. In the future, my Administration will continue to work with all interested parties to ensure that adequate information is available for research and policy decisions.

The collateral consequences of signing this bill will have a negative impact on public safety. Removing the court's ability to grant a 180-day extension when good cause is demonstrated will impede the ability for a bail agent to return a defendant to court after they have failed to make their required court appearance.

Reducing a competitive marketplace in the bail industry will result in less bail being written on individuals thereby producing further overcrowding in our local jails. Many county jails are currently under federal caps which require releases of individuals regardless of status. By increasing the impact on overcrowding more defendants will be released on their own recognizance, without bail. Studies have shown it is less likely for someone who fails to appear on their court date to be found and brought to justice if they are released on their own recognizance versus those who have been released on bail.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

I issued Executive Order S-10-04 to begin the comprehensive process of reforming the state's asset management program. Senators Battin and Denham have been instrumental in moving these ideas forward in the Legislature. Unfortunately, this bill inadvertently creates another layer of bureaucracy by requiring an additional review of leases that are less than $25,000. I believe that this will only delay the execution of state leases.

The State of California provides civil and administrative protections against disability discrimination that are as broad as those provided under federal law. In many instances, California disability laws provide more extensive remedies than those contained in federal law. It is, therefore, unnecessary to subject the State to suit under the Americans with Disabilities Act. SB 1760 would expressly waive the State's sovereign immunity under the Eleventh Amendment of the United States Constitution and permit the State of California to be sued for violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Employees should have reasonable privacy protections in the workplace. Existing law limits monitoring of phone calls and prohibits video and audio recordings in restrooms and locker or changing rooms. In today's electronic environment, employers give their employees access to technological advancements, such as use of the Internet and e-mail, for business purposes, employers should have the ability to monitor employee activity in order to ensure the access is not being abused. Unfortunately, in attempting to provide employees with notice of monitoring, this bill places an unfair and unrealistic burden on those employers wishing to monitor the electronic activity of their workers.

The notice requirements in this bill are too broad and do not define what constitutes proper notice, which I cannot support when an employer that fails to issue a notice or that issues a deficient notice faces the possibility of a misdemeanor conviction and civil lawsuits.

This bill has the potential to add significant fiscal pressure to the State's current budget deficit by establishing new reimbursement methodologies likely to increase rates and facilitating the organization of child care providers. Even with our fiscal crisis, California has the highest child care reimbursement rates in the nation.

Consistent with the 2004 Budget Act and the California Performance Review (CPR) report alternative reimbursement methodologies are being evaluated by the Administration. It would be inappropriate for the State to proceed with the process described in SB 1897 prior to fully considering the alternatives.

California receives a capped federal allocation to fund child care through block grants. It is imperative that we balance our fiscal reality and the need to provide services to working families. In today's fiscal environment increased costs will come at the expense of child care slots for California's working families.

For these reasons I am returning this bill without my signature.

I share the goal of this measure to protect agricultural employees from being forced to taste-test unwashed grapes. Existing law, including Labor Code statute and the standards adopted by the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board, requires employers to provide employees with a safe and healthy workplace. Protecting employees from the effects of tasting or consuming grapes is covered under this mandate. As such, the key to ensuring workers are not forced to consume unwashed grapes is through strengthened enforcement of existing laws, not through the enactment of more laws. The Labor and Workforce Development Agency, which oversees Cal/OSHA and workplace health and safety standards, is committed to such enforcement.

This measure attempts to provide some fiscal relief to two counties by establishing an 11 percent minimum for property tax allocations by transferring property tax revenues from the Educational Augmentation Fund in each county that receives less than this minimum in fiscal year 2001-02. ### COMMUNICATIONS

The following communication was ordered printed in the Journal:

September 21, 2004

Members of the Senate:

This letter concerns SB 1150 (Chapter 197 Statutes of 2004), the legislation I authored pertaining to the unauthorized use of lender names and consumer loan information in solicitations.

Consumers with home loans are inundated with solicitations to refinance those loans and for other financial products. Too often, the senders of these solicitations are using the name of the consumer's lender and the consumer's loan information in order to make the consumer think the solicitation was sent or approved by their actual lender.

SB 1150 is intended to protect consumers from these deceptive practices in the following three ways: First, a solicitor may not use the name, trade name, logo or tagline of the consumer's lender without obtaining the consent of the lender or, alternatively, making the specified disclaimer. Second, a solicitor may not adopt for its own name the name of a lender, or a name similar to that of a lender, if the use of that name could cause a consumer to mistakenly think that the lender sponsors or approves of the solicitor or its services. Finally, a solicitor may not use the consumer's loan number or loan amount without obtaining the consent of the consumer or, alternatively, making the specified disclaimer.

The measure does not prevent lenders from using comparative advertising where there is no confusion about one lender sponsoring or endorsing the services of the other. However, if any use of a lender's name or a name similar to that of a lender by a solicitor has the potential to confuse consumers as to the lender's sponsorship, even if the confusion is only brief, the defense of nominative fair use does not apply and the solicitor is subject to all the provisions of the legislation.

Lastly, the SB 1150 provides important enforcement mechanisms designed to make this legislation work for the benefit of consumers. A person who uses the name of a lender without permission or proper disclaimer can be enjoined and also is liable for the lender's actual damages, costs and attorneys' fees.

Peace and friendship,

JOHN L. BURTON

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR*A PROCLAMATION*by the Governor of the State of California

WHEREAS, an extraordinary occasion has arisen and now exists requiring that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in special session; and

WHEREAS, the national and State economies have recovered very little from the recession of 2001; and

WHEREAS, the State's high tech sector has seen almost no signs of increased demand for its products and services; and

WHEREAS, the continuing decline in the stock market will further reduce personal income tax receipts from capital gains and stock options; and

WHEREAS, the expected economic recovery from the national recession has not materialized as anticipated, thus reducing personal income tax, sales tax, and corporation tax revenues; and

WHEREAS, on January 8, 2002 the Legislature was convened to meet in extraordinary session to make General Fund spending reductions in the 2001-02 fiscal year; and

WHEREAS, the Legislative Analyst's Office and the Department of Finance are now projecting a budget shortfall exceeding $21 billion over the 2002-03 and 2003-04 fiscal years, and

WHEREAS, California's local, public, health care delivery systems face operating deficits now and in the future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I GRAY DAVIS, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Section 3(b) Article IV of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in special session at Sacramento, California, on the 9th day of December, 2002, at a time appointed by each house of the Legislature of said day for the following purpose:

PRAYER

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Deacon Walter J. Little:

Creator of the Universe and All Within It, We pause for a moment to publicly grieve the loss of the crew of the space shuttle Columbia: Seven irreplaceable human beings who represent the spirit of America and the ideals of that which the human race is capable. As their lives are hereafter transformed into myth let us celebrate their courage, their passion for exploring the unknown frontiers, their search for the answers to the great questions: who, how and what are we, as a species, as a planet. Loving God, as each of us has imagined ourselves soaring, with these magnificent seven, beyond the “high untrodden sanctity of space,” reaching out “with silent lifting minds” and touching the essence of Your Spirit, we pray that You will reach back and gather them into Your Divine Being and welcome them home.—AMEN.

COMMUNICATIONS AND LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL

On request of Senator Chesbro, the following communications were ordered printed in the Journal:

Mr. Greg Schmidt

Chief Executive Officer, Senate Rules Committee

Dear Mr. Schmidt: Today the Senate voted to approve Assembly Bills 11X and 6X with amendments. As originally drafted, AB 11X authorized the suspension of annual grants from the Aeronautics Account for the 2003–2004 budget-year; while AB 6X authorizes an additional $5.15 million transfer from the Aeronautics Account to the General Fund in the current fiscal-year.

The official vote from Senate was to delete the provisions of AB 11X that dealt with the annual grants. It is the Budget Committee's intent to amend the provisions of AB 6X and reduce the total reversion from the Aeronautics Account by $5.15 million in the current fiscal-year.

Sincerely,

WESLEY CHESBRO
Chairman
Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee

Mr. Greg Schmidt

Chief Executive Officer, Senate Rules Committee

Dear Mr. Schmidt: Today the Senate will vote on Assembly Bill 6X. Included in this bill is a provision to reduce $1.69 million and 29.5 positions from the Department of Fish and Game's Conservation, Education, and Enforcement Program.

This proposal is inconsistent with the Legislature's efforts and intent to ensure the highest level of enforcement at the Department of Fish and Game. However, in light of the State's budget crisis we understand that certain reductions must be made.

Despite our action today to approve this reduction, it is our intent that the vacant enforcement positions associated with this proposal remain authorized through the remainder of the current fiscal-year.

Sincerely,

WESLEY CHESBRO
Chairman
Budget and Fiscal Review Committee

SHEILA KUEHL

Natural Resources Committee

COMMUNICATIONS AND LETTERS OF TRANSMITTAL

The following communication was ordered printed in the Journal:
February 6, 2003

The Honorable John Burton
State Capitol

Dear Senator Burton:

We are writing to advise you of CCPOA's support of SB 15X, relating to corrections. SB 15X would permit nonserious, nonviolent inmates confined in state prison to receive day-for-day credits while housed at the reception centers and while on waiting lists for full-time assignments. Such credits would only apply to inmates that are complying with the Department of Corrections' rules.

Under current law, these inmates earn day-for-day credits once they are assigned to school or work. Pending such an assignment, they earn only one day for every two days served.

SB 15X was carefully drafted to not grant these credits to serious or violent offenders. Its enactment would reduce state costs by about $70 million per year, thereby making a significant contribution to the solution of the state's budget problem. The bill does not break faith with the public, who expect inmates eligible for day-for-day credits, to serve at least one-half of their sentence.

Given the immense budget challenge facing the state, we believe that SB 15X is a reasonable attempt to reduce corrections' costs. We respectfully ask for your support of this measure.

Sincerely,

DEBRA HEUSEL
CCPOA Legislative Chair

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol
March 17, 2003

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 15 without my signature.

This bill would provide that eligible inmates who are willing to participate in a full-time credit earning program, but are either unassigned or assigned for less than full time, receive the same day-for-day credit as inmates that perform in a full-time assignment.

I appreciate the intent of this measure toward reducing General Fund prison expenses during this very difficult budget year. Under existing laws, worktime credits (which reduce the length of a prisoner's sentence) can be earned if a prisoner participates in a work or educational program. This measure would remove the requirement that worktime credits must be earned by allowing inmates who are not working or participating in an educational program to receive the same credit earning opportunities as those inmates who are actively learning job skills or continuing their education. While I appreciate the Legislature's earnest efforts to reduce expenditures, I can not support this measure.

My Administration will work with the Legislature to put forth suggestions on ways to provide General Fund savings at the Department of Corrections.

Cordially,

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

Above bill ordered placed on unfinished business file.

Receipt of Bill

I acknowledge receipt this 17th day of March 2003 at 8:05 p.m., of SB 15 without the Governor's signature, together with a statement of his objection thereto, signed by the Governor, delivered to me personally by Casey Elliott.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor’s Office, State Capitol
March 18, 2003

To the Members of the California Senate:

Senate Bill 18 of the First Extraordinary Session would amend the 2002–03 Budget Act in order to reduce current year K–14 education appropriations closer to the revised minimum Proposition 98 Guarantee, and also to reduce current expenditures for higher education. The bill captures anticipated savings in several programs, utilizes funds appropriated in prior years for Proposition 98 purposes to fund current year activities (a “swap”), makes various other reductions, and defers nearly $1.1 billion dollars in current year appropriations into the next fiscal year. The bill includes language to make this deferral permanent, such that the June principal apportionment would annually be paid on July 2nd rather than June 25th, commencing with the 2003 calendar year.

I am signing this bill with reservations. By lowering the current year Proposition 98 appropriations primarily through deferrals rather than reductions, this bill avoids short-term pain but makes the budget year outlook more difficult. Deferring the June principal apportionment is inconsistent with generally accepted accounting principles. I am asking that the Legislature promptly send corrective legislation to eliminate the permanent feature of the deferral.

I sign this bill with the understanding that Section 17, which may be ambiguous, still requires that school districts purchase instructional materials adopted by the State Board of Education.

Ultimately, I have decided to sign this bill as it is of critical importance to balance the budget and to lower the Proposition 98 expenditures for the current year, and thereby also set an achievable spending level for 2003–04.

Cordially,

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

Governor's Office, State Capitol
March 18, 2003

To the Members of the California Senate:

I am signing Senate Bill 19. This urgency measure amends Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 2002 (Chapter 379, Stats. 2002) by revising various items of appropriations, as specified, and authorizing the Director of Finance to revert additional amounts from specified funds to the General Fund. This bill does not include education issues.

The reductions made by this bill are a good beginning towards solving the budget problems. However, these reductions are significantly lower than I proposed in my 2002–03 Mid-Year Reduction Proposals plan and falls short of what is necessary to address the budget solution. Therefore, due to the magnitude of the fiscal deficit facing the State of California, further cuts will be needed for the 2002–03 fiscal year. I am hopeful that the Legislature will act quickly to address the balance of the January proposals.

Cordially,

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

God of All Creation, God of all people, all places, all faiths . . . known to us by many names, renew our faith this beautiful but surreal day . . . this day when we awoke to clear blue skies and the freshest of spring air . . . when we awoke to begin another week of work and service . . . when we awoke from a fitful night's rest to be jolted once again by continuing news of war in a desert land, to lives lost and hearts of families and friends breaking . . .

Facing the uncertainty, O God, grant us all grace to do justice, love kindness and walk humbly with You.

May Your mercy flow freely . . . may healing begin . . . may compassion abound . . . may beauty be known . . . may peace prevail sooner than later.

Turn Your spirit loose on this world and among those gathered here, that we might, with courage and truth, seek reconciliation with those with whom we differ; affirm goodness and generosity as it is offered; and direct our powers and our passions, here and now, to affirming life in its fullest.

In the spirit of hope, love and justice we pray . . . AMEN.

Prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Rev. Deacon Walter J. Little:

Great Spirit, God, Creator of All, We welcome You into our hearts, minds, bodies and souls. Grant us the wisdom to heed our inner voice and the strength to stay grounded while we sing our sacred songs. Guide us along our chosen paths and give us the courage to pursue our wildest dreams. We thank You for the lessons and for the struggles You have placed before us, for they keep us mindful of what has brought us to where we are today. Open our hearts to Your healing wholeness through which we are all related and through which we find serenity. Great Spirit, God, Creator of All, we pray that You cleanse our spirits and wash our souls, that there may always be room for You there.—AMEN.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Governor's Office, State Capitol
May 5, 2003

To the Members of the Senate:

I am signing SB 20 because it is an important step toward balancing the state budget. It is part of a bipartisan package of six bills that taken together is intended to achieve a critical $3.6 billion in budget reductions for the 2002–03 and 2003–04 fiscal years.

As part of the state's cost savings measures, Senate Bill 20x foregoes a one-time $500 million General Fund contribution in 2003–04 to the Supplemental Benefit Maintenance Account (SBMA) within the California State Teachers' Retirement System (STRS).

I believe that there are sufficient safeguards in SB 20x to ensure that the purchasing power protection benefits the State has provided to retired educators and other school personnel would not be diminished. The SBMA is currently funded at a level that will provide 80 percent purchasing power protection for the next 33 years. Furthermore, this bill requires the State to restore the funds in the SBMA if sufficient purchasing power protection cannot be maintained through July 1, 2036. In addition, beginning in 2006, and every four years thereafter, STRS will perform quadrennial actuarial valuations to determine if there is sufficient funding in the SBMA to provide this protection.

Taken together, these provisions guarantee that the integrity of the SBMA will be preserved and benefits to educators who have provided a valuable public service will be adequately protected from downturns in the stock market similar to what we have recently experienced.

Sincerely,

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

Governor's Office, State Capitol
May 5, 2003

To the Members of the Senate:

I am signing SB 24 because it is an important step toward balancing the state budget. It is part of a bipartisan package of six bills that taken together is intended to achieve a critical $3.6 billion in budget reductions for the 2002–03 and 2003–04 fiscal years.

SB 24 makes statutory changes necessary to implement reductions in the 2003–04 fiscal year related to health and human services programs. Technical changes necessary to implement the bill's provisions will be proposed in the May Revision.

Sincerely,

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

Governor's Office, State Capitol
May 5, 2003

To the Members of the Senate:

I am signing SB 28 because it is an important step toward balancing the state budget. It is part of a bipartisan package of six bills that taken together is intended to achieve a critical $3.6 billion in budget reductions for the 2002–03 and 2003–04 fiscal years.

However, I object to the repeal of the Governor's Scholarship awards programs. The Governor's Scholar Awards and Distinguished Math and Science Awards programs were established as part of a two-bill package in an agreement involving both houses of the legislature. This agreement included the creation of the CalGrant entitlement and competitive financial aid award programs. Together, these four programs help the state fulfill the promise to students that academic achievement should be rewarded and that a college education should be accessible to all students.

The importance of the Governor's Scholarship awards programs—encouraging students to master our rigorous content standards and providing further financial support for those who succeed in attaining the highest level of academic achievement—should be maintained. The savings achieved by the other provisions of the bill need not come at the cost of these useful programs. Therefore, I sign this bill with the understanding that there will be restoration of these essential programs in the budget year.

Sincerely,

GRAY DAVIS, Governor

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR*A PROCLAMATION*by the Governor of the State of California

Governor's Office, State Capitol

January 23, 2003

WHEREAS, an extraordinary occasion has arisen and now exists requiring that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in special session; and

WHEREAS, on December 30, 2002, the Court of Appeal held in the case of Marine Forests Society et al. v. California Coastal Commission et al. that the present statutory scheme of legislative appointment and removal of voting members of the California Coastal Commission violates the separation of powers provisions of the California Constitution; and

WHEREAS, unless the Court's decision is reversed or modified by further judicial review or unless the matter is addressed by legislation, the California Coastal Commission may be unable to grant permits or issue cease and desist orders that are legally binding; and

WHEREAS, inability of the Coastal Commission to grant legally binding permits or take effective enforcement actions could cause irreparable harm to California's economy and environment, affecting thousands of individuals who own homes, businesses or other property within the coastal zone; and

WHEREAS, the Coastal Commission processes almost 2,000 permits per year, including applications for waivers and emergency permits; and

WHEREAS, if the Coastal Commission cannot approve legally binding permits, hundreds of property owners may be unable to build or make emergency repairs in compliance with the Coastal Act; and

WHEREAS, if the Coastal Commission cannot issue legally binding cease and desist orders, its ability to protect California's coastal resources will be severely limited; and

WHEREAS, almost 900 cases are pending before the Coastal Commission involving alleged violations of the Coastal Act, requiring resolution of the Commission's authority as soon as possible to avoid needless litigation, delay and costs to property owners and taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, the potential inability of the Coastal Commission to discharge its duties under the Coastal Act has created an extraordinary occasion requiring that the Legislature be convened in special session;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GRAY DAVIS, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Article IV, Section 3(b) of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in special session at Sacramento, California, on the 23rd day of January, 2003, at a time appointed by each house of the Legislature of said day for consideration and adoption of legislation to amend the provisions of the Public Resources

Code which provide for appointment and removal of members of the Coastal Commission.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 22nd day of January 2003.

GRAY DAVIS
Governor of California

Our lives move between being and becoming, yearning to discover the depth of our being and the totality of our potential yet to be. We are grateful for Your embracing spirit as we explore and drink deeply of the sweetness and bitterness of life. We are thankful that we are encouraged to risk gladly, to love wastefully, to act compassionately. We have learned that our lives can be rich with hope and possibility when we receive Your spirit, welcome Your revelation.*

Spirit of watchful care, we seek to act out of faith in Your promise, not to resist the call to full humanity, not to look for the security of the known and so avoid the adventure and challenge of the unknown, but always to explore ways we can more fully love You and others.

Source of great love and mercy, nurture in us the vision of the poet, the questions of the child, the boldness of the prophet, the courage of a disciple that we may be faithful intercessors in our prayers and in our lives.—AMEN.

HIGH FLIGHT

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew.
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

Into Your eternal glory, O Lord, we commend his immortal spirit.—AMEN.

So too, we pause to remember Ronald Reagan, a man who in many ways epitomizes the myth of the American dream. A man who rose from humble beginnings to become both Governor of this great state and the President of the United States. The brilliant blue around
I realize that I'm a visitor here
And eventually will come down
Why is it that I feel the need
To have the control stick in hand
To climb my way to heavens gate
And see God's creation grand
I know the order will come
That I must totally stand down
The final [taps] will be [played]
And my final mission crowned
I'll kneel before my eternal commander
Place my gold wings at his feet
They never really were mine
Just loaned for moments so fleet
Prayerfully I will ask him
A billet for me that day
That I may fly for him forever
In heavens eternal sway

HIGH FLIGHT

Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds—and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of—wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there,
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew.
And, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.

Into Your eternal glory, O Lord, we commend his immortal spirit.—AMEN.

Men and women whom You saw fit to call out of their ordinariness, who became heroes in the fight to liberate a suffering humanity, who, trusting in Your grace, would not be denied.

So too, we pause to remember Ronald Reagan, a man who in many ways epitomizes the myth of the American dream. A man who rose from humble beginnings to become both Governor of this great state and the President of the United States. May the example of his life, as well as the lives of all who are called to defend the Constitution of this great nation, be an inspiration to every American in every time and place. Speed that carries the sound away
Above the clouds so soft
I can see the golden sun above
The brilliant blue around
I realize that I'm a visitor here
And eventually will come down
Why is it that I feel the need
To have the control stick in hand
To climb my way to heavens gate
And see God's creation grand
I know the order will come
That I must totally stand down
The final [taps] will be [played]
And my final mission crowned
I'll kneel before my eternal commander
Place my gold wings at his feet
They never really were mine
Just loaned for moments so fleet
Prayerfully I will ask him
A billet for me that day
That I may fly for him forever
In heavens eternal sway
